Speak Into The Mirror:

Lily in the Mirror Paula Hayes, 2016-07-01 Lily loves all things dark and mysterious so when she discovers a magic mirror in a locked room it's like a dream come true Or is it Lily now has a new friend who desperately needs her help But she's also got an older brother who really needs to get a life Lily will require all eleven fingers plus a hefty slice of Grandad's chocolate ganache cake to fix a long forgotten tragedy that's very close to home

Irony and Idealism Fred Rush, 2016 Irony and Idealism investigates the historical and conceptual structure of the development of a philosophically distinctive conception of irony in early to mid nineteenth century European philosophy The principal figures treated are the romantic thinkers Friedrich Schlegel and Novalis Hegel and Kierkegaard Fred Rush argues that the development of philosophical irony in this historical period is best understood as providing a way forward in philosophy in the wake of Kant and Jacobi that is discrete from and many times opposed to German idealism Irony and Idealism argues against the grain of received opinion that among the German romantics Schlegel's conception of irony is superior to similar ideas found in Novalis It also presents a sustained argument showing that historical reconsideration of Schlegel has been hampered by contestable Hegelian assumptions concerning the conceptual viability of romantic irony and by the misinterpretation of what the romantics mean by the absolute Rush argues that this is primarily a social ontological term and not as is often supposed a metaphysical concept Kierkegaard although critical of the romantic conception deploys his own adaptation of it in his criticism of Hegel continuing and in a way completing the arc of irony through nineteenth century philosophy The book concludes by offering suggestions meant to guide contemporary reconsideration of Schlegel's and Kierkegaard's views on the philosophical significance of irony

The Flaming Sword ,1906 Interventions with Infants and Parents Paul V. Trad,1992 The first two years of life are recognized as the most crucial developmental period for the establishment of personality and mental health in the infant The relationship between caregivers and the infant is crucial to developing healthy means of communicating The author describes innovative techniques for identifying and modifying maladaptive behaviors between caregiver and infants Previewing as the author calls the technique helps the infant gain a sense of mastery over the changes taking place within his body as well as externally Especially important is the fact that caregivers can be taught to develop skills of sensitivity so they can preview successfully with their infants X3 Thirteen O'Clock Press,2015-09-06 X3 is a diverse and intriguing collection of stories which are weird unclassifiable and experimental dive into this eclectic mix and enjoy a wide range of stories from Thirteen s impressive authors who raided their archives for unpublished extraordinary tales and look out for more editions soon Speaking in the Spirit Stephen Wexler,2019-07-02 What is the gift of prophecy Does it continue today or did it pass away with the apostles What does it mean to speak in the Spirit Few subjects are more contentious and more misunderstood in the church today This book examines these questions by carefully studying Scripture and the works of the most prominent scholars The conclusions have profound implications for Christian belief and behavior Self-Speaking in Medieval and Early Modern English Drama R. Hillman,1997-05-30 This book documents the changing representation of subjectivity in Medieval and Early Modern English drama by intertextually exploring discourses of self speaking including soliloquy Pre modern ideas about language are combined with recent models of subject formation especially Lacan s to theorize and analyze the stage self as a variable linguistic construct Both the approach itself and the conclusions it generates significantly diverge from the standard New Historicist Cultural Materialist narrative of subjectivity Plays range from the Corpus Christi pageants to the Beaumont and Fletcher canon with Shakespeare a recurrent focus and Hamlet inevitably the pivotal text

American Architect and Building News ,1878 Authorship and Film David A. Gerstner,Janet Staiger,2013-09-13 Authorship in film has been a persistent theme in the field of cinema studies This volume of new work revitalizes the question of authorship by connecting it to larger issues of identity in film in the marketplace in society in culture Essays range from the auteur theory and Casablanca to Oscar Micheaux from the American avant garde to community video all illuminating how authorship is a complex idea with far reaching implications This ambitious and wide ranging book will be essential reading for anyone concerned with film studies and the concept of the author

7 Love Letters from Jesus Rebecca Hayford Bauer,2012-04-16 Christians have been told again and again that Jesus loves them yet many have not stepped into the security and intimacy that His love provides Whether because of poor past relationships or a lack of good examples many struggle to find intimacy with their Savior Now Rebecca Hayford Bauer invites readers to step into the best love story of all 7 Love Letters from Jesus is an in depth study of Revelation 2 and 3 a passage of Scripture that paints a metaphorical picture of courtship engagement and marriage to the Lamb of God It s also a passage that Christians have sometimes misread or misunderstood but no longer Readers will gain a new appreciation for these vivid images for their spiritual life and begin to see how Jesus views each and every person as worthy of His relentless pursuit

The AI Mirror Shannon Vallor,2024 For many AI technology inspires hope for the future the promise of shared human flourishing and collective liberation from drudgery that defines the good life but always seems to elude our species Yet today s AI technology is forged from human generated data into immensely powerful but flawed mirrors that endlessly reflect the same errors biases and failures of wisdom we are striving to escape To open new futures for ourselves with these tools is as misguided as gazing into a mirror while trying to climb an uncharted mountain At this crucial juncture for humanity and our planet we need something new from AI and more importantly from ourselves We need to find new hope not to surrender our greatest moral and intellectual ambitions to machines that have none but to renew those ambitions collectively for ourselves Shannon Vallor makes a wide ranging prophetic and philosophical case for what AI could be and what we can be with it She calls us to reclaim our human potential for moral and intellectual growth rather than losing sight of our shared humanity as we gaze dully into our AI mirrors

How to Maximize Your Brain , Performance Anxieties Ann Pellegrini,2014-02-04 Performance Anxieties looks at the on going debates over the value of psychoanalysis for feminist theory and politics specifically concerning the social and psychical meanings of racialization Beginning with an historicized return to Freud and the meaning of Jewishness in Freud's day Ann Pellegrini indicates how race and racialization are not incidental features of psychoanalysis or of modern subjectivity but are among the generative conditions of both Performance Anxieties stages a series of playful encounters between elite and popular performance texts Freud meets Sarah Bernhardt meets Sandra Bernhard Joan Riviere's masquerading women are refigured in relation to the hard female bodies in the film Pumping Iron II The Women and the Terminator and Alien films In re-reading psychoanalysis alongside other performance texts Pellegrini unsettles relations between popular and elite performance and performative
