You Mean I Don't Have to Tithe? David A. Croteau, 2010-02-01 Tithing is a well known church practice in our day and age but do church goers really practice it When did the concept of tithing begin How is it justified What does the Bible say about it You Mean I Don't Have to Tithe is a detailed study on the controversial topic of tithing covering over 2 000 years of well known theologians regarding this topic Dr Croteau's intense tithing investigation will enable you to explore tithing and related topics in depth expounding many misconceptions of tithing as well as aiding in a correct understanding of this popular topic The Living Church, 1952 The Stewardship Companion: Lectionary Resources for Preaching William

H. Willimon, David N. Mosser, 2007 By Night Reverend E. Clifford Cutler, 2010-01-21 Saint Paul's Church in Philadelphia where most of these sermons were given is reminiscent in architecture to those old pilgrimage churches of France with its rose window and gargoyles flying buttress and flèche that pierces the horizon of Chestnut Hill At one time the cross at the top of the flèche was the highest point in Philadelphia Coming to Saint Paul's brings one to a place of peace for me as one parishioner described it that helps me to try and work toward peace in the world An omen of peace for the parish is how our third rector described a gathering of clergy from North and South at Saint Paul's only six months after Lincoln's assassination Enemies just months prior they now stood before God at the altar of Saint Paul's A hundred years later in May of 1962 the parish established a memorial and planted a Red Oak on Rogation Day to honor Dag Hammarskjöld and all who died for world peace In a night of disunity and polarization that marks the opening of a third millennium the sermons and meditations in this book describe what is taking place beyond a flaring together that holds the brilliant prospect of peace This is the pilgrimage that is worth taking The Preaching of Jesus William Brosend, 2010-02-01 Using the findings of historical Jesus studies William Brosend asks what is the rhetoric that characterized the preaching of Jesus in the Synoptic Gospels and how may today's preaching benefit from it This book for preachers and students of preaching helps the reader see four distinct aspects of the rhetoric of Jesus dialogical preaching in response to challenges and questions proclamatory making bold and authoritative statements occasionally self-referential though less so than in the Fourth Gospel and persistently figurative illustrating his message through metaphor Brosend spends one chapter on each of these methods closing each chapter with a sermon that models that approach and his analysis of it Sample sermons are by well known preachers including Fred Craddock Michael Curry Tom Long and Barbara Brown Taylor Brosend concludes with the implications for modern preaching and a sermon of his own A Sourcebook for Stewardship Sermons James E. Carter, 1979

An Undevotional Jimmy R. Watson, 2019-04-30 In the same spirit as his previous book Big Jesus Watson takes us on a journey through the Gospel of Luke with a touch of humor and a wheelbarrow full of insights and information Watson believes nothing is more pretentiously self pious than to write something and call it a devotional unless one has already been canonized as a saint An Undevotional is not a spoon fed offering of theological niceties but rather a head spinning array of possibilities into the mind and ministry of Jesus of Nazareth with contemporary applications At times irreverent at all times interesting this book is un dispensable for Jesus devotees and un devotees alike

Climbing with Jesus Stephen Grunlan, 2010-01-01 How does Jesus expect his followers to live in this world The Sermon on the Mount is the manifesto of his Kingdom Not a future kingdom but his present kingdom Satan is the ruler of this world The Bible tells us he is the prince of this world the prince of the power of the air and a king This world is enemy territory As Jesus told Pilate his kingdom is not of this world Jesus followers represent his kingdom and are to live out its values The Sermon on the Mount lays out the values of Christ s kingdom It is in living out these values that we can subvert the kingdom of this world We are revolutionaries inside the enemy s kingdom But our revolution is not one of violence and force It is a revolution of love and peace based on obedience to our Lord and living out his values
