Special Delivery Epistolary Modes In Modern Fiction:

Special Delivery Linda S. Kauffman, 1992-03 Though letter writing is almost a lost art twentieth century writers have mimed the epistolary mode as a means of reevaluating the theme of love In Special Delivery Linda S Kauffman places the narrative treatment of love in historical context showing how politics economics and commodity culture have shaped the meaning of desire Kauffman first considers male writers whose works testing the boundaries of genre and gender imitate love letters Viktor Shklovsky's Zoo Vladimir Nabokov's Lolita Roland Barthes's A Lover's Discourse and Jacques Derrida's The Post Card She then turns to three novels by women who are more preoccupied with politics than passion Doris Lessing's The Golden Notebook Alice Walker's The Color Purple and Margaret Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale By juxtaposing these women's productions with the men's production of Woman Special Delivery dismantles the polarities between male and female theory and fiction high and low culture male critical theory and feminist literary criticism Kauffman demonstrates how all seven texts mercilessly expose the ideology of individualism and romantic love each presents alternate paradigms of desire wrested from Oedipus grounded in history and politics giving epistolarity a distinctively postmodern stamp

Feminisms Robyn R. Warhol, Diane Price Herndl, 1997 In the landmark 1991 edition of Feminisms Robyn Warhol and Diane Price Herndl assembled the most comprehensive collection of American and British feminist literary criticism ever to be published In this revised edition the editors have updated the volume in keeping with the expanded parameters of feminist literary discourse With the inclusion of more than two dozen new essays along with a major reorganization of the sections in which they appear Warhol and Price Herndl have again established the measure for representing the latest developments in the field of feminist literary theory Believing that the feminist movement can only move forward where difference commands attention not dismissal or negativism they have continued the original collection's mission of providing a multiplicity of perspectives and approaches This anthology contains three new sections Conflict Gaze and Practice and includes more selections by and about women of color and lesbians Aimed at academics and the general public alike this collection is an indispensable guide to the range of practice on campus today in the field of feminist literary criticism Samuel

Richardson and the Art of Letter-Writing Louise Curran, 2016-03-17 Examines Samuel Richardson's letters and novels and explores the interconnection between fiction and correspondence in eighteenth century literature Feminist Critical Negotiations Alice A. Parker, Elizabeth A. Meese, 1992-05-21 This volume is a collection of original contributions in the field of feminist critical theory which reflect upon past practices and suggest new strategies and directions for future work The articles are presented in two non exclusive interactive sections Theorizing Feminist Criticism and The Feminist Writing Subject They offer different points of entry into the familiar debates that have dominated feminist literary criticism for over a decade The contributions stage negotiations with literary critical and feminist theory which are productive of different perspectives and new strategies for reading and writing Nabokov and His Fiction Julian W. Connolly, 1999-08-05

Published in 1999 to mark the centenary of Vladimir Nabokov's birth this volume brings together the work of eleven of the world's foremost Nabokov scholars offering perspectives on the writer and his fiction Their essays cover a broad range of topics and approaches from close readings of major texts including Invitation of a Memory and Pale Fire to penetrating discussions of the significant relationship between Nabokov's personal beliefs and experiences and his art Several of the essays attempt to uncover the artistic principles that underlie the author's literary creations while others seek to place Nabokov's work in a variety of literary and cultural contexts Among these essays are a first glimpse at a little known work The Tragedy of Mr Morn as well as a perspective on Nabokov's most famous novel Lolita The volume as a whole offers valuable insight into Nabokov scholarship

Rereading Heterosexuality Rachel Carroll, 2012-04-04 Heterosexuality in contemporary novels re-examined using the frameworks of feminism and queer theory Drawing on feminist and queer theories of sex gender and sexuality this study focuses on female identities at odds with heterosexual norms In particular it explores narratives in which the conventional equation between heterosexuality reproductive sexuality and female identity is questioned

Abdellah Taïa's Queer Migrations Denis M. Provencher, Siham Bouamer, 2021-06-28 In this first edited collection in English on Abdellah Taïa Denis M Provencher and Siham Bouamer frame the distinctiveness of the Moroccan author's migration by considering current scholarship in French and Francophone studies post colonial studies affect theory queer theory and language and sexuality In contrast to critics that consider Taïa to immigrate and integrate successfully to France as a writer and intellectual Provencher and Bouamer argue that the author's writing is replete with elements of constant migration comings and goings cruel optimism flexible accumulation of language over borders transnational filiations and new forms of belonging and memory making across time and space At the same time his constantly evolving identity emerges in many non places defined as liminal and border narrative spaces where unexpected and transgressive new forms of belonging emerge without completely shedding shame mourning or melancholy

Beyond the Second Sophistic Tim Whitmarsh, 2020-05-05 The Second Sophistic traditionally refers to a period at the height of the Roman Empire's power that witnessed a flourishing of Greek rhetoric and oratory and since the 19th century it has often been viewed as a defense of Hellenic civilization against the domination of Rome This book proposes a very different model Covering popular fiction poetry and Greco Jewish material it argues for a rich dynamic and diverse culture which cannot be reduced to a simple model of continuity Shining new light on a series of playful imaginative texts that are left out of the traditional accounts of Greek literature Whitmarsh models a more adventurous exploratory approach to later Greek culture Beyond the Second Sophistic offers not only a new way of looking at Greek literature from 300 BCE onwards but also a challenge to the Eurocentric aristocratic constructions placed on the Greek heritage Accessible and lively it will appeal to students and scholars of Greek literature and culture Hellenistic Judaism world literature and cultural theory

Nasser in the Egyptian Imaginary Omar Khalifah, 2016-10-27 The late President of Egypt Gamal Abdel Nasser 1918-1970 has been represented in many major works of Egyptian literature and film and continues to have a presence in everyday life and discourse in the country Omar Khalifah's analysis of these representations focuses on how the historical character of Nasser has emerged in the Egyptian imaginary He explores the recurrent images of Nasser in literature and film and shows how Nasser constitutes a perfect site for plural interpretations He argues that Nasser has become a rhetorical device a figure of speech a trope that connotes specific images constantly invoked whenever he is mentioned His study makes a case for literature and art to be seen as alternative archives that question erase distort and add to the official history of Nasser Reading the American Novel 1920-2010 James

Phelan, 2013-04-02 This astute guide to the literary achievements of American novelists in the twentieth century places their work in its historical context and offers detailed analyses of landmark novels based on a clearly laid out set of tools for analyzing narrative form Includes a valuable overview of twentieth and early twenty first century American literary history Provides analyses of numerous core texts including The Great Gatsby Invisible Man The Sound and the Fury The Crying of Lot 49 and Freedom Relates these individual novels to the broader artistic movements of modernism and postmodernism Explains and applies key principles of rhetorical reading Includes numerous cross novel comparisons and contrasts

Vladimir Nabokov's Lolita Ellen Pifer, 2003 This volume comprises an interview with Nabokov as well as nine critical essays that follow a progression focusing first on textual and thematic features of Lolita and then proceeding to broader issues and cultural implications including the novel's relations to other work of literature and art Willa Cather Marilee Lindemann, 1999-02-10 Although it has been proven posthumously by scholars that Willa Cather had lesbian relationships she did not openly celebrate lesbian desire and even today is sometimes described as homophobic and misogynistic What then can a reassessment of this contentious first lady of American letters add to an understanding of the gay identities that have emerged in America over the past century As Marilee Lindemann shows in this study of the novelist's life and work Cather's sexual coming of age occurred at a time when a cultural transition was recasting love between women as sexual deviance rather than romantic friendship At the same time the very identity of America was characterized by great instability as the United States emerged as a modern industrial nation and imperial power Indeed both terms queer and America achieved fresh ideological potency at the turn of the century Willa Cather Queering America is an enlightening unpacking of Cather's writings from her controversial love letters of the 1890s in which queer is employed to denote sexual deviance to her epic novels short stories and critical writings Lindemann points to the queer qualities of Cather's fiction rebellion against traditional fictional form with sometimes unlikable characters lack of emphasis on heroic action and lack of engagement in the drama of heterosexual desire To Marry an Indian Theresa Strouth Gaul, 2006-03-08 When nineteen year old Harriett Gold from a prominent white family in Cornwall Connecticut announced in 1825 her intention to marry a Cherokee man her shocked family initiated a spirited correspondence debating her decision to marry an Indian Eventually Gold's family members reconciled themselves to her wishes and she married Elias Boudinot in 1826 After the marriage she returned with

Boudinot to the Cherokee Nation where he went on to become a controversial political figure and editor of the first Native American newspaper Providing rare firsthand documentation of race relations in the early nineteenth century United States this volume collects the Gold family correspondence during the engagement period as well as letters the young couple sent to the family describing their experiences in New Echota capital of the Cherokee Nation during the years prior to the Cherokee Removal In an introduction providing historical and social contexts Theresa Strouth Gaul offers a literary reading of the correspondence highlighting the value of the epistolary form and the gender and racial dynamics of the exchange As Gaul demonstrates the correspondence provides a factual accompaniment to the many fictionalized accounts of contacts between Native Americans and Euroamericans and supports an increasing recognition that letters form an important category of literature

BOOK JACKET Wilkie Collins, Vera Caspary and the Evolution of the Casebook Novel A.B. Emrys, 2014-01-10 Wilkie Collins was one of the most popular novelists during England's Victorian era. While Collins scholarship has often focused on social issues, this critical study explores his formal ingenuity, particularly the novel of testimony constructed from epistolary fiction, trial reports, and prose monologue. His innovations in form were later mirrored by Vera Caspary, who adapted The Woman in White three times into contemporary fiction. This text explores how the formal dialogue between Collins and Caspary has linked sensation fiction with noir thrillers and film noir.
