Handbook of Material Culture Chris Tilley, Webb Keane, Susanne Kuechler, Mike Rowlands, Patricia Spyer, 2006-01-05 The study of material culture is concerned with the relationship between persons and things in the past and in the present in urban and industrialized and in small scale societies across the globe The Handbook of Material Culture provides a critical survey of the theories concepts intellectual debates substantive domains and traditions of study characterizing the analysis of things It is cutting edge rather than simply reviewing the field as it currently exists It also attempts to chart the future the manner in which material culture studies may be extended and developed The Handbook of Material Culture is divided into five sections Section I maps material culture studies as a theoretical and conceptual field Section II examines the relationship between material forms the human body and the senses Section III focuses on subject object relations Section IV considers things in terms of processes and transformations in terms of production exchange and consumption performance and the significance of things over the long term Section V considers the contemporary politics and poetics of displaying representing and conserving material and the manner in which this impacts on notions of heritage tradition and identity The Handbook charts an interdisciplinary field of studies that makes an unique and fundamental contribution to an understanding of what it means to be human It will be of interest to all who work in the social and historical sciences from anthropologists and archaeologists to human geographers to scholars working in heritage design and cultural studies The Photographic Journal ,1992 Vols for 1853 include the transactions of the Royal Photographic Society of Great Britain Society, Culture, and Technology in Africa S. Terry Childs,1994 The book includes eight papers focusing on the interaction of society culture and technology in Africa over the last two million years The goal is to highlight the research being conducted in Africa on this broad topic and thereby facilitate communication between scholars of sociotechnical systems worldwide Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair,2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Historic Mosques in Sub-Saharan Africa Stéphane Pradines,2022-11-07 This book is the first comprehensive synthesis on mosques in sub Saharan Africa bringing together sites from more than twenty states from sub Saharan Africa and more than 285 monuments from the IXth to the XIXth centuries This monograph is divided into three large geographical areas from the earthen mosques of West Africa to the Nile Valleys and the Horn of Africa and to the Indian Ocean shores and Swahili coral stone mosques This book is a statement that African mosques demonstrate cultural links with North Africa Arabia Persia and India these monuments are unique in the history of Islamic architecture and they belong to our World Heritage The Hidden Spirituality of Men Matthew Fox,2010-09-24 It is no secret that men are in trouble today From war to ecological collapse most of the world s critical problems stem from a distorted masculinity out of control Yet our culture rewards the very dysfunctions responsible for those problems To Matthew Fox our crucial task is to open our minds to a deeper understanding of the healthy masculine than we receive from our media culture and religions Popular religion forces the punitive imagery of fundamentalism on us pushing most men away from their natural yearning for spirituality and toward intolerance and domination Meanwhile many men particularly young men are looking for images of healthy masculinity to emulate and finding nothing To awaken what Fox calls the sacred masculine he unearths ten metaphors or archetypes ranging from the Green Man an ancient pagan symbol of our fundamental relationship with nature to the Grandfatherly Heart to the Spiritual Warrior He explores archetypes of sacred marriage showing how partnership becomes the ultimate expression of healthy masculinity By stirring our natural yearning for healthy spirituality Fox argues these timeless archetypes can inspire men to pursue their higher calling to reinvent the world
