Spectator And The Landscape:

Studies in the Spectator Role Michael Benton, 2017-09-25 Michael Benton's book develops the concept of spectatorship as an answer to these questions. It explores the similarities and differences in our experiences of literature and the visual arts and discusses their implications for pedagogy and their applications in cross-curricular work in the classroom. Teachers will find that while many of the visual and verbal texts may be familiar, the approaches to them offer fresh insights and a rich agenda for the classroom. Shakespeare, Fielding, Hogarth, Blake, Wordsworth, Constable, Turner, the Pre-Raphaelites, Wilfred Owen, Paul Nash, Stanley Spencer, Ted Hughes, and Seamus Heaney: the range of authors and artists discussed is both extensive and relevant to the National Curriculum and to post-16 and undergraduate courses. Cinematic Geographies and Multicultural Spectatorship in America Amy Lynn Corbin, 2019-03-30 Exploration intertwined with home seeking has always defined America. Corbin argues that films about significant cultural landscapes in America evoke a sense of travel for their viewers. These virtual travel experiences from the mid-1970s through the 1990s built a societal map of popular multiculturalism through a movie-going experience. Landscape and Film Martin Lefebvre, 2007-05-07 Landscape is everywhere in film, but it has been largely overlooked in theory and criticism. This volume of new work will address fundamental questions: What kind of landscape is cinematic landscape? How is cinematic landscape different from landscape painting? How is landscape deployed in the work of such filmmakers as Greenaway, Rossellini, or Antonioni, to name just three? What are the differences between the use of landscape in Western filmmaking and in the work of Middle Eastern and Asian filmmakers? How is cinematic landscape related to the idea of a national cinema and questions of identity? The first collection on the idea of landscape and film; this volume will present an impressive international cast of contributors among them Jacques Aumont, Tom Conley, David B. Clarke, Marcus A. Doel, Peter Rist, and Antonio Costa. Reflective Landscapes of the Anglophone Countries Pascale Guibert, 2011 Preliminary Material Acknowledgements Notes on Contributors Introduction Pascale Guibert From Interiority to Landscapes and Seascapes The Metaphors of Reflection in Locke's Essay Concerning Human Understanding Matthieu Haumesser Reflections on Wordsworth's Narcissistic Landscapes Aurélie Thiria Meulemans So the Horizon Line Vanishes Landscape and Abstraction in England from the 1930s to the 1950s Sophie Aymes Out of the Garrison and Beyond The Rewriting of the Landscape Tradition in Contemporary Canadian Fiction Claire Omhove One Land Three Landscapes Frank Gillen's Alice Springs Timothy Mason Taking the High Road The Form Perception and Memory of Loch Lomond Allan Ingram Digging into the West Tim Robinson's Deep Landscapes Eamonn Wall The Wilderness as Symbolic Form Thoreau, Grnewald and the Group of Seven Jonathan Bordo Landscape as Reflection in British Contemporary Art Marjorie Vanbaelinghem Early Wordsworth Towards the Limits of the Picturesque Laurent Folliot Locations of Memory A Psycho-Spatial Reading of Traumatic Landscape in Owen Sheers Mametz Wood Robert Burden Negotiating Colonial Contradiction E. Journey through Landscape in Seventeenth-Century Holland: The Haarlem Print Series and Dutch Identity, The sets of landscape etchings produced in the second decade of the seventeenth century by Claes Jansz Visscher Esaias van den Velde Willem Buytewech and Jan van de Velde drew on and contributed to a print culture that played a key role in defining Dutch landscape Examination of these printed landscape series as part of a wide ranging print culture underscores the consistent interrelationship of landscape history and politics To varying degrees the contemporaneous descriptive geographies histories allegorical tableaux didactic prints and poetic anthologies considered in this study provide parallels for the prints serial structure journey theme and commemorative motifs Moreover as part of a wider enterprise of Dutch self definition they provide cultural guidelines for the interpretation of landscape in prints and paintings Levesque's study of the Dutch seventeenth century experience of place is two tiered She addresses the journey through landscape as an interpretive framework the spatial structure of knowledge the benefits of travel from the point of view of humanists and the growth of a Dutch national self consciousness expressed through landscape She also provides a close reading of the structure and motifs Archipelago Antonio Gómez, Francisco-J. Hernández Adrián, 2021-12-16 How do the islands and archipelagos of the New World figure in Latin American cinema Comprising 15 essays and a critical introduction The Film Archipelago Islands in Latin American Cinema addresses this question by examining a series of intersections between insular spaces and filmmaking in Latin America The volume brings together international scholars and filmmakers to consider a diverse corpus of films about islands films that take place on islands films produced in islands and films that problematise islands The book explores a diverse range of films that extend from the Chilean documentaries of Patricio Guzmán to work on the Malvinas Falkland Islands and films by Argentine directors Gustavo Fontán and Lucrecia Martel Chapters focus on Rapa Nui Easter Island the Mexican Islas Marías and the Panamanian Caribbean on ecocritical environmental and film historical aspects of Brazilian and Argentine river islands and on Cuban Guadeloupean Haitian and Puerto Rican contexts The Film Archipelago argues that the islands and archipelagos of Latin American cinema constitute a critically interesting analytically complex and historically suggestive angle to explore issues of marginality and peripherality remoteness and isolation and fragility and dependency As a whole the collection demonstrates to what extent the combined insular and archipelagic lens can re frame and re figure both longstanding and recent discussions on the spaces of Latin American cinema Neo-Romantic Landscapes Stella Hockenhull, 2009-03-26 Neo Romantic Landscapes offers a reappraisal of the 1940s films of Powell and Pressburger focusing on their use of landscape Questioning the established notion that the two film makers owing to their non British personal roots are located as un British and other Stella Hockenhull draws a correlation between the two media of film and painting to suggest otherwise Emphasising the spiritual aspects of landscape and nature at a time when the experience and imagery of the war years generated a particular kind of affect arising from the aftermath of destruction she locates Powell and Pressburger's wartime films in their historical and cultural context notably Neo Romanticism By offering a close analysis of films such as A Canterbury Tale I Know Where I'm Going Black Narcissus and Gone with the Wind she finds similar aesthetic qualities in a number of British landscape paintings executed contemporaneously Drawing on press reviews for contemporary spectator response Neo Romantic Landscapes offers a redirection of Film Studies foregrounding the aesthetic pleasures of cinema in excess of narrative plausibility thus resituating Powell and Pressburger in the British cultural traditions of the visual arts Re-Framing the Theatrical A. Oddey, 2015-12-17 Oddey questions the role of the spectator and director and the nature of art works and performance She provocatively demonstrates the spectator as centre of the artistic experience a new kind of making theatre art revealing its spirit and nature searching for space and contemplation in a hectic twenty first century landscape Conceptual Art and Painting Charles Harrison, 2001 In Conceptual Art and Painting a companion to his Essays on Art and Language Charles Harrison reconsiders Conceptual Art in light of renewed interest in the original movement and of the various forms of neo Conceptual art Publisher's description
