Spectral America:

Spectral America Jeffrey Andrew Weinstock, 2004 From essays about the Salem witch trials to literary uses of ghosts by Twain Wharton and Bierce to the cinematic blockbuster The Sixth Sense this book is the first to survey the importance of ghosts and hauntings in American culture across time From the Puritans conviction that a thousand preternatural beings appear every day before our eyes to today's resurgence of spirits in fiction and film the culture of the United States has been obsessed with ghosts In each generation these phantoms in popular culture reflect human anxieties about religion science politics and social issues Spectral America asserts that ghosts whether in oral tradition literature or such modern forms as cinema have always been constructions embedded in specific historical contexts and invoked for explicit purposes often political in nature The essays address the role of spectral evidence during the Salem witch trials the Puritan belief in good spirits the convergence of American Spiritualism and technological development in the nineteenth century the use of the supernatural as a tool of political critique in twentieth century magic realism and the ghosting of persons living with AIDS They also discuss ghostly themes in the work of Ambrose Bierce Edith Wharton Gloria Naylor and Stephen King The Spectralities Reader Maria del Pilar Blanco, Esther Peeren, 2013-08-29 The Spectralities Reader is the first volume to collect the rich scholarship produced in the wake of the spectral turn of the early 1990s which saw ghosts and haunting conjured as compelling analytical and methodological tools across the humanities and social sciences Surveying the past twenty years from an interdisciplinary and cross cultural perspective the Reader displays the wide range of concerns spectrality in its diverse elaborations has been called upon to elucidate The disjunctions produced by globalization the ungraspable quality of modern media the convolutions of subject formation in terms of gender race and sexuality the elusiveness of spaces and places and the lingering presences and absences of memory and history have all been reconceived by way of the spectral A primer for the wide readership engaged with cultural interpretations of ghosts and haunting that go beyond the confines of the fictional and supernatural The Spectralities Reader includes twenty five groundbreaking texts by prominent contemporary thinkers from Jacques Derrida and Gayatri Spivak to Avery Gordon and Arjun Appadurai as well as a general introduction and six section introductions by the editors Monstrous Things Jeffrey Andrew Weinstock, 2022-11-10 An indispensable resource for students and researchers of paranormal myth and media this book explores the undead and unholy in literature film television and popular culture Following an introduction to frightful manifestations in media sections address ghosts vampires and monsters individually and each section includes a broad consideration of the ghost vampire or monster in American culture The section dedicated to ghosts examines the spectral turn of popular culture and the ghost's relation to justice and mourning with particular attention to Toni Morrison and Herman Melville In the vampires section the author considers the undead bloodsucker's relationship to anti-Semitism suicide and cinema The third section discusses monsters in relation to topics such as global pandemics terrorism mass shootings stranger danger and social otherness with attention to a range of popular culture texts including the films IT and It Follows Antipodean America Paul Giles, 2013 A sweeping study that spans two continents and over three hundred years of literary history Antipodean America identifies the surprising affinities between Australian and American literature Publications of the Astronomical and Astrophysical Society of America American Astronomical Society, 1927 List of members in v 1 3 Journal of the Optical Society of America Optical Society of America, 1922 Publications of the Astronomical and Astrophysical Society of America [1910-13] American Astronomical Society, 1918 List of members in v 1 3 Gettysburg Unearthed: John G. Sabol Jr., 2007-09-27 This book is the third in a series of anthropological studies which analyze ghosts and haunting phenomena in their cultural context A history of visitations to the Gettysburg landscape is linked to the presence or absence of anomalous sensory manifestations The preliminary analysis of the data suggests that the hauntings at Gettysburg may be a product of sociocultural factors in part related to the growth of heritage tourism rather than any ghostly manifestations by civil war soldiers Since this is a preliminary analysis a research design is proposed to further excavate the Gettysburg landscape This approach is based on the use of ethnographic context spatial symmetry cultural relativity and performance based investigative practices The author proposes that through this methodology a controlled excavation of the landscape can be made thus unearthing a more scientific analysis and evaluation of Gettysburg as a haunted cultural place Dramatic Apparitions and Theatrical Ghosts Ann C. Hall, Alan Nadel, 2023-08-10 Ghosts haunt the stages of world theatre appearing in classical Greek drama through to the plays of 21st century dramatists Tracing the phenomenon across time and in different cultures the chapters collected here examine their representation dramatic function and what they may tell us about the belief systems of their original audiences and the conditions of theatrical production As illusions of illusions they foreground many dramatic themes common to a wide variety of periods and cultures Arranged chronologically this collection examines how ghosts represent political change in Athenian culture in three plays by Aeschylus their function in traditional Japanese drama the staging of the supernatural in the dramatic liturgy of the early Middle Ages ghosts within the dramatic works of Middleton George Peele and Christopher Marlowe and the technologies employed in the 18th and 19th centuries to represent the supernatural on stage Coverage of the dramatic representation of ghosts in the 20th and 21st centuries includes studies of No I Coward's Blithe Spirit August Wilson's Pittsburgh Cycle plays by Sam Shepard David Mamet and Sarah Ruhl Paddy Chayefsky's The Tenth Man Suzan Lori Parks Topdog Underdog and the spectral imprint of Shakespeare's ghosts in the Irish drama of Marina Carr Martin McDonagh William Butler Yeats and Samuel Beckett The volume closes by examining three contemporary American indigenous plays by Anishinaabe author Alanis King Spectral America: A Haunting Journey Across the Nation Pasquale De Marco, 2025-03-22 In the heart of America where history and mystery intertwine lies a hidden realm of restless spirits and unexplained phenomena Spectral America takes you on a haunting journey through the nation's most haunted places uncovering the chilling tales of those who have encountered the supernatural From the eerie

Musical America ,1921 Pathologizing Black Bodies Constante González Groba,Ewa Barbara Luczak,Urszula Niewiadomska-Flis,2023-05-18 Pathologizing Black Bodies reconsiders the black body as a site of cultural and corporeal interchange one involving violence and oppression leaving memory and trauma sedimented in cultural conventions political arrangements social institutions and most significantly materially and symbolically engraved upon the body with the self often deprived of agency and sovereignty Consisting of three parts this study focuses on works of the twentieth and twenty first century fiction and cultural narratives by mainly African American authors aiming to highlight the different ways in which race has been pathologized in America and examine how the legacies of plantation ideology have been metaphorically inscribed on black bodies The variety of analytical approaches and thematic foci with respect to theories and discourses surrounding race and the body allow us to delve into this thorny territory in the hope of gaining perspectives about how African American lives are still shaped and haunted by the legacies of plantation slavery Furthermore this volume offers insights into the politics of eugenic corporeality in an illustrative dialogue with the lasting carceral and agricultural effects of life on a plantation Tracing the degradation and suppression of the black body both individual and social this study includes an analysis of the pseudo scientific discourse of social Darwinism and eugenics the practice of mass incarceration and the excessive punishment of black bodies and food apartheid and USDA practices of depriving black farmers of individual autonomy and collective agency Based on such an interplay of discourses methodologies and perspectives this volume aims to use literature to further examine the problematic relationship between race and the body and stress that black lives do indeed matter in the United States The ghost story 1840-1920 Andrew Smith,2013-01-18 The ghost story 1840 1920 A cultural history examines the British ghost story within the political contexts of the long nineteenth century By relating the ghost story to economic national colonial and gendered contexts it provides a critical re evaluation of the period The conjuring of a political discourse of spectrality during the nineteenth century enables a culturally sensitive reconsideration of the work of writers including Dickens Collins Charlotte Riddell Vernon Lee May Sinclair Kipling Le Fanu Henry James and M R James Additionally a chapter on the interpretation of spirit messages reveals how issues relating to textual analysis were implicated within a language of the spectral This book is the first full length study of the British ghost story in over 30 years and it will be of interest to academics graduate students and advanced undergraduates working on the Gothic literary studies historical studies critical theory and cultural studies Journal of the Optical Society of America and Review of Scientific Instruments ,1926 Walking Shadows Ib Johansen,2015-08-25 Walking Shadows focuses on the American fantastic and the American grotesque attempting in this manner for the first time to establish an overview of and a theoretical approach to two literary modes that have often been regarded as essential to an understanding of the American cultural canon The central importance of these two literary forms has been pointed out earlier by important theorists such as Stanley Cavell

David Reynolds and William Van O Connor A number of literary works from the beginning of the nineteenth to the end of the twentieth centuries are taken up in order to illustrate the inherent links or family resemblances between the two modes with special reference to the way in which a Bakhtinian reading may facilitate our appreciation of their status within the canon These excursions into the House of Fantastic and Grotesque Fiction may be of interest not only to hardcore aficionados but also to philosophically minded readers in general in particular perhaps to those who have paid acute attention to debates on late twentieth and early twenty first century post structuralism and deconstruction where the classic positions of Foucault Derrida et al still appear to be relevant

House of Horrors Agnieszka Kotwasińska, 2023-06-15 This is a study of tumultuous transformations of kinship and intimate relationships in American horror fiction over the last three decades Twelve contemporary novels by ten women writers and two whose work has been identified as women's fiction are grouped into four main thematic clusters haunted houses monsters vampires and hauntings but it is social scripts and concerns linked directly to intimacy and family life that structure the entire volume By drawing attention to how the most intimate of all social relationships the family supports and replicates social hierarchies exclusions and struggles for dominance the book problematises the source of horror The consideration of horror narratives through the lens of familial intimacies makes it possible to rethink genre boundaries to question the efficacy of certain genre tropes and to consider the contribution of such diverse authors as Kathe Koja Tananarive Due Gwendolyn Kiste Elizabeth Engstrom Sara Gran and Caitlín R Kiernan
