The Champions? Thirty Years of the UEFA Champions League Mark Doidge, Yağmur Nuhurat, Radosław Kossakowski, 2025-04-18 Covering the impact on domestic leagues clubs fans and players this book is an interdisciplinary exploration of 30 years of the Champions League and how it has impacted football The year 1992 has become a key year in the development of football Not only was the Premier League formed in this year but the Champions League was also launched Both were designed to placate the larger clubs and have provided more money and resources for these elite clubs The Champions League was also established to avoid the likelihood of a breakaway super league although recent events have indicated that this was not successful Despite the threat of the Super League the Champions League continues to expand Ultimately this restructuring of European football's premier competition has resulted in a variety of impacts on domestic leagues clubs fans and players all are themes that are explored here This book is an essential resource for students researchers and professionals in sports marketing and management sociology cultural studies and media analysis The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Soccer Society Specters of Anarchy Jeff Shantz, 2015-10-01 Anarchy The word alone conjures strong emotional responses Anarchism is one of the most important if maligned radical social movements In the 21st century anarchist politics have enjoyed a significant revival offering a positive vision of social change and an alternative to the injustice and inequality associated with states and corporate dominance Yet anarchism remains misunderstood and misrepresented in mass media and government accounts that associate the term with chaos and disorder Despite the negative portrayals anarchism in fact has always been a movement of intense creativity More than a political movement anarchism has for over a century made important contributions to cultural developments especially in literature and art Often overlooked are the vital creative expressions of anarchism This lively volume featuring works by innovative scholars presents the compelling potency of anarchist literature through distinct voices Anarchism has greatly influenced literary production and provided inspiration for a diversity of writers and literary movements Edited by a longtime anarchist theorist this exciting collection of engaging works highlights the rich articulations of anarchism and literary creations It places anarchism at the center of analysis and criticism Authors examined include Octavia Butler John Fowles James Joyce Ursula LeGuin Eugene O'Neill B Traven and Oscar Wilde among others The collection shows the richness of anarchist movements in politics and culture Specters of Anarchy examines critically the generally overlooked intersections engagements debates and controversies between literature and criticism and anarchist theories and movements historically and in the present period Synthesizing literary criticism with the theory and practice of anarchism this book offers a re-reading of important literary and political works Anarchist politics is a major and growing contemporary movement yet the lack of informed analysis has meant that the actual perspectives desires and visions of this movement remain obscured Lost in recent sensationalist accounts are the creative and constructive practices undertaken daily by anarchist organizers imagining a world free from violence oppression and exploitation An examination of some of these constructive anarchist visions which provide examples of politics grounded in everyday resistance offers insights into real world attempts to radically transform social relations in the here and now of everyday life

Authoritarian Capitalism in the Age of Globalization Peter Bloom, 2016-03-25 Exploring the rise of authoritarian capitalism this book offers a fresh perspective on politics and economics in the present age of globalization It asks the crucial question of whether individuals and nations can break free from the grip of authoritarian capitalism in the twenty first century Peter Bloom includes a detailed and in depth analysis of how marketization is promoting political authoritarianism across the world He tells a story of authoritarian progress where capitalist prosperity can only be delivered by the coercive rule of self disciplining nations and disciplining trans national institutions and in which capitalist sovereignty is replacing liberal and social democracy In doing so Bloom helps readers rethink the structural as well as discursive role of sovereign power within capitalism showing the ways the free market relies upon a range of authoritarian political fantasies not just for its growth but its very survival

Globalization, Neo-conservative Policies, and Democratic Alternatives John Loxley, 2005 Over the course of the last two decades governments around the world implemented a fundamental shift in the mainstream economic policy and ushered in a period of globalization These changes which are commonly known as neo conservative were resisted by a range of social forces from workers to farmers in the universities and on the streets With its diverse international perspectives of globalization and formulations of alternative economic policies this volume of essays responds to and posits alternatives for the uncreative and unjust policy decisions of world governments that negatively affect the welfare of the world s indigent people This book s unifying theme is the principle of social justice that motivates Loxley s life and work Loxley an economist is perhaps best known for his work in South Africa as an advisor to Nelson Mandela during the transition from apartheid and with First Nations communities in his native Canada Many of the 19 essays explore the impact of globalization on the developing world particularly Africa A comprehensive and expansive exploration of the global impact of neo conservative economic policies from an internationally diverse group of scholarly voices wealth generation and its unequal distribution Drawing on international case studies leading experts from across the social sciences offer 22 accessible and coherently organized chapters which critically analyse a range of topics including the legitimacy of extreme wealth from a moral economic perspective biographies of illicit super wealth London's housing markets how the very wealthy fly the environmental consequences of super rich lives crafting immigration policies to attract the rich Students and scholars studying a host of topics such as development studies economics geography history political science and sociology will find this book eminently engaging It will also be of great interest to public commentators charitable organizations and NGOs concerned with wealth and income distributions The New Palgrave Dictionary of Economics, 2016-05-18 The award winning The New Palgrave Dictionary of Economics 2nd edition is now available as a dynamic online resource Consisting of over 1 900 articles written by leading figures in the field including Nobel prize winners this is the definitive scholarly reference work for a new generation of economists Regularly updated This product is a subscription based product Postmodernism Hugh J. Silverman, 2017-08-07 This book first published in 1990 addresses the broad cultural phenomenon that is postmodernism The first part of the book raises some general theoretical questions about postmodernism its language and its politics for example The second section attends to particular sites namely the various arts themselves and the philosophical understanding of them Here one finds specific readings of architecture painting literature theatre photography film television dance and fashion Learning the Virtual Life Peter Pericles Trifonas, 2012-04-23 Digital technologies have transformed cultural perceptions of learning and what it means to be literate expanding the importance of experience alongside interpretation and reflection Learning the Virtual Life offers ways to consider the local and global effects of digital media on educational environments as well as the cultural transformations of how we now define learning and literacy While some have welcomed the educational challenges of digital culture and emphasized its possibilities for individual emancipation and social transformation in the new information age others accuse digital culture of absorbing its recipients in an all pervasive virtual world Unlike most accounts of the educational and cultural consequences of digital culture Learning the Virtual Life presents a neutral advanced introduction to the key issues involved with the integration of digital culture and education This edited collection presents international perspectives on a wide range of issues and each chapter combines upper level theory with real world practice making this essential reading for all those interested in digital media and education The Routledge Anthology of Restoration and Eighteenth-Century Drama Kristina Straub, Misty G Anderson, Daniel O'Quinn, 2017-04-07 The Routledge Anthology of Restoration and Eighteenth Century Drama brings together the work of key playwrights from 1660 to 1800 divided into three main sections Restoring the Theatre 1660 1700 Managing Entertainment 1700 1760 Entertainment in an Age of Revolutions 1760 1800 Each of the 20 plays featured is accompanied by an extraordinary wealth of print and online supplementary materials including primary critical sources commentaries illustrations and reviews of productions Taking in the spectrum of this period's dramatic landscape from Restoration tragedy and comedies of manners to ballad opera and gothic spectacle The Routledge Anthology of Restoration and Eighteenth Century Drama is an essential resource for students and teachers alike

Art and Identity at the Water's Edge Tricia Cusack, 2017-07-05 The water's edge whether shore or riverbank is a marginal territory that becomes invested with layers of meaning The essays in this collection present intriguing perspectives on how the water's edge has been imagined and represented in different places at various times and how this process contributed to the formation of social identities Art and Identity at the Water's Edge focuses upon national coastlines and maritime heritage on rivers and seashore as regions of liminality and sites of conflicting identities and on the edge as a tourist setting Such themes are related to diverse forms of art including painting architecture maps photography and film Topics range from the South African seaside resort of Durban to the French Riviera The essays explore successive ideological mappings of the Jordan River and how Czech cubist architecture and painting shaped a new nationalist reading of the Vltava riverbanks They examine post Hurricane Katrina New Orleans as a filmic spectacle that questions assumptions about American identity and the coast depicted as a site of patriotism in nineteenth century British painting The collection demonstrates how waterside structures such as maritime museums and lighthouses and visual images of the water's edge have contributed to the construction of cultural and national identities

The Cinema of Nuri Bilge Ceylan Bülent Diken, Graeme Gilloch, Craig Hammond, 2017-12-02 Film maker Nuri Bilge Ceylan's meditative visually stunning contributions to the New Turkish Cinema have marked him out as a pioneer of his medium Reaping success from his prize winning breakout film Uzak 2002 and from later festival favourites Once Upon a Time in Anatolia 2011 and Winter Sleep 2014 he has quickly established himself as an original and provocative writer director and producer of 21st century cinema In an age where Turkey's modernisation has created societal tensions and departures from past tradition Ceylan's films present a cinema of dislocation and a vision of nostalgia understood as homesickness sick of being away from home sick of being at home This book offers an overdue study of Ceylan's work and a critical examination of the principle themes therein In particular chapters focus on time and space melancholy and loneliness absence rural and urban experience and notions of paradox as explored through films which are often slow and uncompromising in their pessimistic outlook Moving on from the tendency to situate Ceylan's oeuvre exclusively within the canon of New Turkish Cinema one of this book's major achievements is also to assess the influence of classic European thought literature and film and how such a notably minimal and in many ways nationally specific approach translates to an increasingly transnational context for film This will prove an important book for film students and scholars and those interested in Turkish visual culture

Elgar Encyclopedia of Critical Management Studies Leo McCann, Ödül Bozkurt, Rachael Finn, Edward Granter, Carolyn Hunter, Nina Kivinen, Arun Kumar, Brian Wierman, 2025-04-09 This expansive Encyclopedia provides a detailed overview of Critical Management Studies CMS This exciting and iconoclastic area of research and scholarship has had a major impact on the academic field of business and management studies opening up possibilities for exploring radical and liberatory ideas in the often conservative and technicist realm of business school education Covering many of the substantive areas of CMS such as control and gender and providing reflexive discussions and critiques this Encyclopedia is a vital contribution to this important and unique field

Postcolonial Imaginings David Punter, 2000 This deeply engaging historically and culturally informed book provides new perspectives on a wide range of writers and at the same time provides a radically new development of many of the most pertinent issues in the field of postcolonial writing and theory It constitutes a major new engagement between the postcolonial and a conception of the literary that is richly innovative in its deployment of psychoanalytic deconstructive and other approaches to the text The book begins with some brief background to the issue of decolonization and its contemporary effects It is informed throughout by a clear sense of literary and political context within which chosen texts by well known writers Derek Walcott Chinua Achebe Edward Kamau Brathwaite as well as less well known ones Joan Riley Susan Power Abdulrazak Gurnah and writers not often seen in a postcolonial context James Kelman Seamus Deane Hanif Kureishi can be situated The chapters that follow are based around themes such as violent geographics hallucination dream and the exotic mourning and melancholy diaspora and exile delocalization and the alibi This profoundly new approach to the complexities of the postcolonial allows the reader to appreciate some of the richness but at the same time the political and cultural ambivalence which underlies postcolonial writing Throughout the book David Punter continually questions as one would expect from his many previous books the definition and scope of the postcolonial It is seen throughout as a phenomenon not restricted to the ex or neo colonies but as a key characterisation of all our lives at the beginning of the twenty first century It is an indissoluble part of the development of national imaginings and at the same time an alibi for the emergence of a violently assertive new world order committed to the management and obliteration of difference By juxtaposing texts from different cultural traditions and topographies from Things Fall Apart to The Bone People from Anot Neo-Victorianism and the Memory of Empire Elizabeth Ho, 2012-04-19 Examining the global dimensions of Neo Victorianism this book explores how the appropriation of Victorian images in contemporary literature and culture has emerged as a critical response to the crises of decolonization and Imperial collapse Neo Victorianism and the Memory of Empire explores the phenomenon by reading a range of popular and literary Anglophone neo Victorian texts including Alan Moore's Graphic Novel From Hell works by Peter Carey and Margaret Atwood the films of Jackie Chan and contemporary Steampunk science fiction Through these readings Elizabeth Ho explores how constructions of popular memory and fictionalisations of the past reflect political and psychological engagements with our contemporary post Imperial circumstances Freedom, 1915 CyberArts 2020 Christine Leopoldseder, 2020-01-01 Der Prix Ars Electronica ist der traditionsreichste Medienkunstwettbewerb der Welt Seit 1987 allj hrlich ausgeschrieben gilt er wegen seiner Kontinuit t der hohen Anzahl sowie Qualit t der Einreichungen als Trendbarometer der weltweiten Medienkunst Mit vielen Bildern Texten und Statements der Jury b ndelt das Buch jene
