and pacifism Although the novella relates to the sacrifice of a young man the grieving of parents and the conflicts of a family it explores human sorrow and anger unchanged from the time of the Trojan War In a return to his earlier lyrical prose style Petrakis also treats us to eight beautifully crafted short stories Beauty's Daughter introduces a sullen spirited Greek bakery owner and his lovely more amiable wife The Birthday considers the fear that most people have of the emotional and physical decline that the years bring and the reconciliation with death In The Wisdom of Solon Solon who does not realize that life cannot be neatly categorized within the mysterious relationships between men and women finds that every action sets in motion a series of often bewildering consequences The question of a proper marriage match and the struggle to make the right choice mark The Rousing of Mathon Sarlas And the longing to believe that something survives our mortal bodies even if reason dictates otherwise is central to A Dishwasher's Tale Completing the collection are Christina's Summer Rites of Passage and A Tale of Color which are also presented in an inviting prose style and individualized by engaging characters to provide readers with a cumulative sense of culture geography and sensibility
