Terrifying Texts Cynthia J. Miller, A. Bowdoin Van Riper, 2018-09-14 From Faust 1926 to The Babadook 2014 books have been featured in horror films as warnings gateways prisons and manifestations of the monstrous Ancient grimoires such as the Necronomicon serve as timeless vessels of knowledge beyond human comprehension while runes summoning diaries and spell books offer their readers access to the powers of the supernatural but at what cost This collection of new essays examines nearly a century of genre horror in which on screen texts drive and shape their narratives sometimes unnoticed The contributors explore American films like The Evil Dead 1981 The Prophecy 1995 and It Follows 2014 as well as such international films as Eric Valette's Malefique 2002 Paco Cabeza's The Appeared 2007 and Lucio Fulci's The Beyond 1981

Communicating Ruth Finnegan, 2023-10-30 Treatments of human communication mostly draw on cognitive and word centred models to present it as predominantly a matter of words This Finnegan argues seriously underestimates the far reaching multi modal qualities of human interconnecting and the senses of touch olfaction and above all audition and vision that we draw on In an authoritative and readable account Ruth Finnegan brings together research from linguistic and sensory anthropology material culture non verbal communication computer mediated communication and strikingly research on animal communication such as the remarkable gesture systems of great apes She draws on her background in classical studies and her long anthropological experience to present illuminating examples from throughout the world past and present The result is to uncover an amazing array of sounds sights smells gestures looks movements touches and material objects used by humans and other animals to interconnect both nearby and across space and time She goes on to first explore the extra sensory modes of communication now being revealed in the extraordinary new science research and then in an incendiary conclusion to deny the long prevailing story of human history by questioning whether orality really came before literacy whether it was really through the acquisition of language that our prehistoric cave painting ancestors made a sudden leap into being true humans and finally astonishingly to ask whether human communicating had its first roots not after all in verbal language but something else Not to be missed this highly original book brings a fresh perspective on among other things that central topic of interest today the dawn of human history and on what being homo sapiens really means This revised and updated edition has additional illustrations updated chapters and a new concluding chapter A provocative and controversial account that will stir worldwide debate this book is an essential transdisciplinary overview for researchers and advanced students in language and communication anthropology and cultural studies

Twilight over Burma Inge Sargent, 1994-08-01 Just married and returning to live in her new husband s native land a young Austrian woman arrived with her Burmese husband by passenger ship in Rangoon in 1953 They were met at dockside by hundreds of well wishers displaying colorful banners playing music on homemade instruments and carrying giant bouquets of flowers She was puzzled by this unusual welcome until her embarrassed husband explained that he was something more than a recently graduated mining engineer he was the Prince of Hsipaw the ruler of an autonomous state in Burma s Shan mountains And these people were his subjects She immersed herself in the Shan lifestyle eagerly learning the language the culture and the history of the Shan hill people The Princess of Hsipaw fell in love with this remote exotic land and its warm and friendly people She worked at her husband s side to bring change and modernization to their primitive country Her efforts to improve the education and health care of the country and her husband s commitment to improve the economic well being of the people made them one of the most popular ruling couples in Southeast Asia Then the violent military coup of 1962 shattered the idyllic existence of the previous ten years Her life irrevocably changed Inge Sargent tells a story of a life most of us can only dream about She vividly describes the social religious and political events she experienced She details the day to day living as a reluctant ruler and her role as her husband s equal a role that perplexed the males in Hsipaw and created awe in the females And then she describes the military events that threatened her life and that of her children Twilight over Burma is a story of a great happiness destroyed by evil of one woman s determination and bravery against a ruthless military regime and of the truth behind the overthrow of one of Burma s most popular local leaders

The Top Books of the Year Spellbound Spells Blessings And Ceremony The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Spellbound Spells Blessings And Ceremony : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Spellbound Spells Blessings And Ceremony : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Spellbound Spells Blessings And Ceremony : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
