Geoffrey Huck, 2015-07-01 This book answers the title question by drawing on empirical results from linguistics and the other cognitive sciences The author argues that good writing is fluent writing where fluency in writing is similar to fluency in speech in that both are naturally derived from motivated participation in a language community In the case of writing the community is that of writers and readers Fluent writing can be learned through avid reading but like fluent speech the evidence indicates that it can't be taught Harcourt Brace Spelling Thorsten Carlson, 1999 Pupil book emphasizes communication by applying spelling skills to writing instruction
