Sinking Of The Kenbane Head:

The Sinking of the Kenbane Head Sam McAughtry, 1977 Culture, Northern Ireland, and the Second World War Guy Woodward, 2015-02-12 Culture Northern Ireland and the Second World War explores the impact of the Second World War on literature and culture in Northern Ireland between 1939 and 1970 It argues that the war as a unique interregnum in the history of Northern Ireland challenged the entrenched political and social makeup of the province and had a profound effect on its cultural life Critical approaches to Northern Irish literature and culture have often been circumscribed by topographies of partition and sectarianism but the Second World War generated conditions for reimagining the province within broader European and global contexts These have perhaps been obscured by the amount of critical attention that has been paid to the impact of the Troubles on the culture of the province and for this reason the book focuses on material produced before the flaring of political violence towards the end of the 1960s Drawing on archival research over four chapters the book describes the activities of an eccentric collection of artists and writers during and after the Second World War and considers how the awkward position of the province in relation to the war is reflected in their work The Merchant Seamen's War Tony Lane, 1990 Heroine Of Her Own Life Constance Emmett, 2022-02-15 In early 20th century Belfast working class Meg Preston struggles to accept her own sexuality and yearns for forbidden love Battling the customs and hardships of their time Meg pursues a relationship with her childhood friend Lillian Watson But soon tribulations of war violence and emigration threaten to tear everything apart Seeking refuge for herself her love and her family can Meg find the courage to become the heroine of her own life Convoy Will Scatter Bernard Edwards, 2013-06-12 A naval historian reveals the full story of the HMS Jervis Bay and the merchant ships that valiantly saved lives during the WWII Battle of the Atlantic On November 5th 1940 the thirty eight merchant ships of Convoy HX84 were making their way across the North Atlantic escorted by the armed cruiser HMS Jervis Bay In mid ocean they were attacked by the German pocket battleship Admiral Scheer Though the Jervis Bay charged at the enemy she was hopelessly outgunned Within twenty two minutes the ship was destroyed Meanwhile the merchantmen scattered under the cover of a smokescreen But the radar equipped Admiral Scheer was still capable of picking them off one at a time Captain Hugh Pettigrew commanding the highly armed Canadian Pacific cargo liner SS Beaverford began a desperate game of hide and seek with the Scheer which continued until the Beaverford was sunk with no survivors Thanks to this sacrifice thirty three merchantmen were able to escape Later the neutral flag Swedish freighter Stureholm commanded by Captain Olander picked up survivors from the Jervis Bay While Jervis Bay's Captain Edward Fegen was rightly awarded the Victoria Cross for his bravery and sacrifice the history books only mention the Beaverford and the Stureholm in passing This thrilling book puts the record straight A New History of Ireland Volume VII J. R. Hill, 2003-12-04 A New History of Ireland is the largest scholarly project in modern Irish history In 9 volumes it provides a comprehensive new synthesis of modern scholarship on every aspect of Irish history and prehistory from the earliest

Atlantic Convoys and Nazi Raiders Bruce A. Watson,2005-12-30 In November of 1940 the German pocket battleship Admiral Scheer attacked British Convoy HX 84 The merchant cruiser HMS Jervis Bay a converted passenger liner that was the convoy's only escort armed only with antique 6 inch guns charged the Nazi raider While the Jervis Bay did not stand a chance of surviving the battle her crew's fatalistic bravery inspired awe in all who witnessed the fight Watson recounts how the Scheer's 11 inch guns turned the ship into a burning hulk in twenty two minutes but most of the convoy escaped In November of 1940 the German pocket battleship Admiral Scheer attacked British Convoy HX 84 The Armed Merchant Cruiser HMS Jervis Bay the only escort and mounting antique 6 inch guns charged the Nazi raider While the Jervis Bay did not stand a chance of surviving the battle her crew's fatalistic bravery inspired awe in all who witnessed the fight Watson describes how the Scheer's 11 inch guns turned the converted passenger liner into a burning hulk in twenty two minutes but most of the convoy escaped How did this confrontation come to pass Both the necessity of arming a passenger liner and pretending it was a warship and the building of the Admiral Scheer and her sister ships for the express purpose of commerce raiding find their roots in the events political decisions re armament policies war plans naval traditions and blunders that arose in pre war Britain and Germany But this event holds a significance beyond the battle itself The sinking of the Jervis Bay symbolizes the end of an era in naval warfare The Armed Merchant Cruisers of the Second World War inherited a long sometimes noble and sometimes ignoble history Long employed in blockade or patrol duty armed merchant cruisers ventured out for the first time to escort convoys a defensive duty for which they were eminently unsuited and for which the Jervis Bay paid a fearful price
