Voices of the Unvoiced Shabana Shamaas Gul Khattak,2025-01-14 This book focuses on Pukhtun women s educational struggle in the traditionalist Pukhtun society to succeed against the odds in Pukhtunkhwa Pakistan The study found higher education as a means of women s liberation their struggle and experiences for higher education give them a unique position in their patriarchal culture The province is dominated by the culture rather than the teaching of Islam Therefore people make decisions according to the Pukhtun culture and social values Strong roots of patriarchy reinforced a religious misinterpretation that culturalised Islam instead of Islamising their culture in the prevailing society Both the stories of the book concluded patriarchy was the main cause of women s marginalisation which further granted a fertile ground for the Taliban to sketch a strategic atrocity and ban women s education in the name of Islam in the Swat Valley Patriarchy and militarisation have been used as a tool for cultural governance of identity and maintenance of gender stratification by sharing common grounds of gender dynamics and women epistemology under liberal radical Marxist socialist Islamic feminism and feminist peace and conflict theories of women security Thus the book discussed feminist approaches concerned about unequal opportunities in higher education that challenged the propagation of male experience and knowledge The scope of the book is broad and focused on women empowerment and emancipation through education It addresses issues related to young Pukhtun women from disadvantaged areas who aspire to get higher education The main focus of the book is to hear Pukhtun women s own voices while discussing the issues related to higher education Applying Research in Reading Instruction for Adults Susan McShane,2005 Teaching Reading and Writing Beyond High-stakes Testing Rongrong Dong,2023-03-10 This book tells about an exemplary high school Chinese language arts teacher s effort in nurturing lifelong readers and writers under the test driven culture in China's society. It looks closely at his everyday literacy practices, focuses on his ways of creating authentic reading and writing spaces for students beyond test preparation. With the lens of social constructivism, the case study reveals his efforts of creating a safe learning environment, modeling his literate life, connecting real life with literacy learning, and building a school-wide literate life for students. Furthermore, he also collaborates with other Chinese language arts faculty and reaches out to school administrators and educators to gain any potential teaching resource for students. The findings indicate exemplary teachers are not only equipped with professional knowledge but also inter-intrapersonal knowledge and practical knowledge in their teaching career, which might be enlightening in today's high-stakes testing culture. The book will appeal to scholars of literacy education and teacher education as well as pre-service and in-service teachers.

Classroom Reading to Engage the Heart and Mind: 200+ Picture Books to Start SEL Conversations Nancy Boyles, 2020-04-01

Storybook characters and situations are perfect for launching discussions of social-emotional learning; why not let them help? In picture books, well-loved characters deal with many of the same problems students face in their own lives. What better resource could there be for encouraging students to think about their actions and responses? Using classroom texts to start SEL conversations during an interactive read-aloud or an extension of shared close-reading lessons weaves social-emotional learning organically into the fabric of an existing curriculum rather than adding a new block to the day. In a book perfect for a study group or for immediate use in the classroom, literacy educator Nancy Boyles connects the dots between the competencies identified by leaders in the SEL field with the rich content of children's literature. More than 200 award-winning picture books are profiled along the way as she unpacks each SEL skill, sketches typical classroom situations in which teachers might not see that skill demonstrated, discusses what to look for in books that address it, and provides carefully crafted sets of questions to explore with students.

The Bible and Gender-based Violence in Botswana Mmapula Diana Kebaneilwe, 2024-04-01

The Bible and Gender-based Violence in Botswana foregrounds the rampancy of gender-based violence against women and girls in biblical texts and how it resonates with gender-based violence (GBV) in the author's contemporary context of Botswana. The volume reads selected texts from the Bible alongside newspaper reports of GBV against women and girls in Botswana to show that while the Bible is taken as an authoritative text within the Botswana context, it is riddled with GBV against female persons. It asserts that by acknowledging and naming GBV in biblical texts and not concealing, ignoring, or spiritualizing it, contemporary communities of faith will be able to confront the problem in these contexts. By so doing, the book argues, the Bible will become a resource for positive transformation rather than a tool for supporting gender injustice. The book appeals to everyone willing to see positive change in regard to gender equality and is intended for a wide readership, including researchers, postgraduates, church, and other representatives of religious institutions and upper-level undergraduates.
