Project Teen Concern Nathalie Hawley, 1976 Right to Remember Ellie Keen, Rui Gomes, 2017-04-28 The second edition of Right to Remember incorporates some small revisions into the original publication Since it was first published in 2014 Right to Remember has been widely used by both Roma and non Roma youth groups The response has been almost overwhelmingly positive but inevitably there have been some suggestions for clarification amendments or inclusion of additional material Certain groups or individuals working on the Roma Genocide have also been kind enough to respond to a call for feedback on the publication Right to Remember is a self contained educational resource for all those wishing to promote a deeper awareness of the Roma Genocide and combat discrimination The handbook is based on the principles of human rights education and places remembrance as an aspect of learning about through and for human rights Strengthening the identity of Roma young people is a priority for the Roma Youth Action Plan of the Council of Europe This implies the creation of an environment where they can grow up free from discrimination and confident about their identity and future perspectives while appreciating their history and their plural cultural backgrounds and affiliations The Roma Genocide carried out before and during the Second World War has deeply impacted on Roma communities across Europe and plays a central role in understanding the prevailing antigypsyism and discrimination against Roma Learning about the Genocide is very important for all young people For Roma young people it is also a way to understand what was perpetrated against their communities and to help them to come to terms with their identity and situation today Involving young people including Roma youth in researching discussing and discovering the meanings of the Roma Genocide is a way to involve them as agents and actors in their own understanding of human rights and of history Right to Remember includes educational activities as well as ideas for commemoration events and information about the Genocide and its relevance to the situation of the Roma people today It has been designed primarily for youth workers in non formal settings but it will be useful for anyone working in education including in schools Nxlevel Instructor's Manual for the Entrepreneurs Course Helen Sumner,2000
