Task-Based English Language Teaching in the Digital Age Valentina Morgana,2023-06-15 This book illustrates the developments of task based language teaching TBLT approaches in relation to the evolution of digital technologies It highlights how technology mediated TBLT principles can support English as a Foreign Language EFL learning and contribute to understanding new classroom dynamics Drawing from the key theoretical concepts of TBLT the author discusses the integration of tasks and technologies from a secondary education perspective which is often under represented in the TBLT literature Morgana looks at how the EFL secondary classroom has been recently re conceptualised as a social place whose boundaries go far behind the traditional school settings This book provides theoretical approaches and classroom implementation practices by presenting four case studies on the different L2 skills reading writing listening and speaking The volume is organised into two main sections The first section focuses on the theoretical approaches to TBLT and highlights the key concepts behind this methodology This section also looks at the recent development of a technology mediated TBLT framework and its implementations in various EFL educational contexts The second section presents four case studies of secondary school EFL learners in Italy Each case study focuses on a different language skill providing examples of classroom practices in both blended and online learning settings Pedagogical recommendations for teachers are provided at the end of each case study The book adopts a multimodal approach and aims at providing scholars in applied linguistics and TBLT practitioners with theories and implementation practices to understand the ways technologies are shaping tasks and mediating students learning processes Teaching Speaking Christine C. M. Goh, Anne

Burns, 2012-01-31 Drawing on wide ranging literature from a variety of relevant disciplines as well as their own extensive experience in teaching spoken English the authors give a fascinating comprehensive and insightful account of the nature of second language speaking skills The research and theory they survey then serves as the basis for the principles strategies and procedures they propose for the teaching of spoken English This book will therefore provide an invaluable resource for teachers teachers in training and researchers providing both a state of the art survey of the field as well as a source of practical ideas for those involved in planning teaching and evaluating courses and materials for the teaching of spoken English Exploring English Language Teaching in Post-Soviet Era Countries Tamilla Mammadova, 2020-10-01 Exploring English Language Teaching in Post Soviet Era Countries analyses different elements of English language teaching from the Soviet era to a new era of Westernised influence This work provides an insight into the problems that occur in present day English language education in post Soviet era countries considering English language teaching at all stages of education The book outlines the challenges that many countries of the former Soviet Union experienced at the turn of the twenty first century and relates these to education as a crucial social phenomenon It considers the teaching of English as a lingua franca at all education levels in the countries of the former Soviet Union with particular emphasis on universities Using empirical research from case studies in Azerbaijan the book considers whether post Soviet era countries have truly moved towards a Westernised model of language education or simply imitated one This book is the first of its kind to treat the problem by listening to teachers and students voices as the major actors of the educational process This book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of English language education education in Eastern Europe and applied linguistics Be Understood!
