Special Children Meeting The Challenge In The Primary School Introduction To Education Series:

Exceptional Child Education Resources, 1996      Resources in Education, 2001-10      Special Children Jane Leadbetter, Peter Leadbetter, 1993-01-01 This book provides trainee and newly qualified primary teachers as well as governors with a broad introduction to the concepts and key issues underlying the teaching of pupils with special educational needs The approach throughout is positive and practical and the presentation is always jargon free The authors give practitioners the encouragement to draw on their own and colleagues expertise and set about coping with children with special educational needs The book provides a useful and varied framework of ideas and offers starting points and guidance for the integration of children and for good mainstream teaching practice This is an essential resource for all who wish to develop expertise or to expand their knowledge base in this area      The Special Educational Needs Co-ordinator's Handbook Garry Hornby, Gregan Davis, Geoff Taylor, 2013-11-05 There is a major new legislation being implemented in Sept 94 this book will be the essential tool to help SEN co ordinators interpret the new rules Spiral bound photocopiable materials Proformas assessment materials etc      Applying Psychology in the Classroom Jane Leadbetter, 2013-11-26 First Published in 1999 Each publication in this series of books is concerned with approaches to intervention with children with specific needs in mainstream schools This book is written primarily for newly qualified primary teachers and any teachers interested in the application of psychologically based approaches in the classroom Its orientation is eclectic drawing on a variety of psychological theories we have found useful in our work as educational psychologists in schools      Overcoming Exclusion Peter J. Mittler, 2013 Professor Peter Mittler brings together nineteen of his key writings in one place including chapters from his best selling books and articles from leading journals which give a flavour of the impact or controversy they aroused      Inclusion, Disability and Culture Elsayed Elshabrawy Ahmad Hassanein, 2015-02-03 This book examines some theoretical and empirical aspects about complexities of inclusion disability and culture It challenges the globalized technical and reductionist approach of inclusion and argues that concepts of disability and inclusion are culturally constructed Disability and inclusion are concepts which do not define a global agenda in the sense that one size fits all Rather they should be seen as being completely context dependent and that they should be deconstructed with respect to specific cultural contexts with respects to society ethics religion and history The main argument of the book is that many cultural backgrounds including Egyptians have their own long standing beliefs and practices which do not define or address disability in the same way as western culture Such cultural differences in understanding disability may lead to different understandings conceptualizations and practices of inclusion The book articulates disability and inclusion within a socio ethical religious discourse based on the Islamic underpinnings of equality and differences This discourse enhances and supports the calls for considering inclusion and disability within a cultural model that takes into account the common values about disability in any given context which consequently will affect the way educational provision is provided in that context

Finally the book challenges the psychological concept of attitude that has been represented in the literature simply as a matter of acceptance or rejection Inclusion Disability and Culture shows that attitude is a complex and context dependent issue that can't be understood in isolation from the wider context within which such responses were created Specifically the role of the social views about disability religious values school cultures educational system and structural and organizational constraints can't be underestimated in understanding teachers attitudes towards a complex issue like inclusion

Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1987      School Behaviour and Families Sue Roffey,2013-10-18 This book focuses on the relationship that schools have with parents and carers especially in the early stages of behavioral difficulty It aims to promote the best possible partnership with parents in what is often a sensitive and emotionally fraught situation It contains an overview of the context and a general theoretical framework for home school interactions on behavior research findings on factors which facilitate or inhibit effective partnerships helping teachers understand why some parents carers are reluctant to become involved or may appear aggressive and suggests ways in which schools might usefully respond and chapters written by contributors with specific expertise in working with parents who have harmed their children the carers of children in foster families and residential homes mobile families including travelers and asylum seekers and families from diverse communities The book is intended primarily for teachers and school managers at every phase of education but will also be of interest to educational psychologists home school liaison officers support staff counselors mentors LEA officers and anyone working in parent partnership schemes      Research in Education ,1970-12      American Book Publishing Record ,2006      Home-study Department University of Chicago.
