The Advertisements of the Spectator Laurence A. Lewis, 1909 THE FRENCH DRAMA IN AMERICA IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY AND ITS INFLUENCE ON THE AMERICAN DRAMA OF THAT PERIOD, 1701-1800 Lewis Patrick Waldo, 1940 The Criticism of Henry Fielding (Routledge Revivals) Ioan Williams, 2011-03-31 First published in 1970 this selection of Fielding s criticism is an important contribution to our understanding of Fielding and his age It directs considerable light upon Fielding s own critical views with regard both to his own works and to eighteenth century life and literature at large The volume includes many of Fielding s well known and important statements on literature society and morals as well as many which are now difficult to obtain The selection presents the full range of Fielding s criticism showing the relations between his statements concerning literature and his opinions on other matters and drawing on the complete body of his work The editor has provided a large scale analytical introduction A Dictionary of Hymnology John Julian, 1892 Fatal Desire Jean I. Marsden, 2018-07-05 Informed by film theory and a broad historical approach Fatal Desire examines the theatrical representation of women in England from the Restoration to the early eighteenth century a period when for the first time female actors could perform in public Jean I Marsden maintains that the feminization of serious drama during this period is tied to the cultural function of theater Women served as symbols of both domestic and imperial propriety and so Marsden links the representation of women on the stage to the social context in which the plays appeared and to the moral and often political lessons they offered the audience The witty heroines of comedies were usually absorbed into the social fabric by marrying similarly lighthearted gentlemen but the heroines of tragedy suffered for their sins real or perceived That suffering served the dual purpose of titillating and educating the theater audience Marsden discusses such plays as William Wycherley s Plain Dealer 1676 John Vanbrugh s Provoked Wife 1697 Thomas Otway s Orphan 1680 Thomas Southerne s Fatal Marriage 1694 and William Congreve s Mourning Bride 1697 The author also addresses tragedies written by three female playwrights Mary Pix Catharine Trotter and Delarivier Manley and sketches developments in tragedy during the period An age of wonders William Burns,2024-07-30 Monstrous births rains of blood apparitions of battles in the sky people in early modern England found all of these events to carry important religious and political meanings In An age of wonders available in paperback for the first time William E Burns explores the process by which these events became religiously and politically insignificant in the Restoration period The story involves the establishment of early modern science the shift from enthusiastic to reasonable religion and the fierce political combat between the Whigs and the Tories This historical study is based on close readings of a variety of primary sources both print and manuscript Burns claims that prodigies lost their religious meaning and became subjects of scientific enquiry as a result of political struggles first by the supporters of the restored monarchy and the Church of England against Protestant dissenters and then by the Whig defenders of the Revolution of 1688 against the Tories and the Jacobites By integrating religious and political history with the history of science An age of wonders will be of great use to those working in the field of early modern history A Dictionary of Hymnology, Setting Forth the Origin and History of Christian Hymns of All Ages and Nations, with Special Reference to Those Contained in the Hymn Books of English-speaking Countries ... John Julian,1892
