Spectre Of The Rose:

The Spectre of the Rose Thomas Woodruff, P.P.O.W., 1989 Selected Lyrics Théophile Gautier, 2011-01-01 Selected Lyrics presents a short list of nineteenth century French poets to be studied with Théophile Gautier La Spectre de la Rose Jim Koss, Piece of the Moon Press, 1981 The Ring of Words Philip Lieson Miller, 1973 Over 300 art songs of Germany France Italy Spain Russia Norway and Sweden with line by line English translations Poetic Principles and Practice Lloyd Austin, 1987 The central theme here is the constant confrontation of theory and practice in the work of Baudelaire Mallarmé and Valéry A French Song Companion Graham Johnson, Richard Stokes, 2002 The French Song Companion is the most comprehensive book of French music in any language The great accompanist Graham Johnson a noted authority of song provides repertoire guides to the work of some 150 composers the majority of them from France but including British American German Spanish and Italian musicians who have written French vocal music There are major articles on such figures as Fauré Duparc Debussy Ravel and Poulenc substantial articles on Bizet Chabrier Gounod Chausson Hahn and Satie and reassessments of such composers as Massenet Koechlin and Leguerney A host of less celebrated figures who have contributed to the genre take their place in a book which is both informative and entertaining The biographical articles are supplemented by the song translations of Richard Stokes some 700 in all and a veritable treasury of great French poetry from the fifteenth to the twentieth centuries These stand in their own right as indispensable to music lovers concert goers and professional singers and their accompanists This is a book which not only reflects the repertoire as found in today's concert halls but also encourages performers and armchair enthusiasts to explore the neglected highways and byways of an endlessly fascinating and highly civilised body of music Music, Art and Emotion Conroy Cupido, 2023-03-01 This book explores the ways in which four visual artists make sense of referentialism and emotion in music By listening to five art songs by Schubert Strauss Fauré and Berlioz they were inspired to create new artworks as a result of their understanding of the meaning of the art songs This was done without an understanding of the text and the artists had to rely on referential meaning in music as well as the perceived or evoked emotions elicited by listening to the art songs The artworks created as a result of this project were exhibited at the Aardklop National Arts Festival entitled Nagmusiek This was a multi modal exhibition featuring music art and text This book employs Artistic Research and Phenomenology in order to understand this phenomenon as I explored the artists creative processes experiences and the tacit knowledge embedded in their artefacts This book would provide readers access to 20 new artworks each created as a result of the artists interpretation of the meaning they ascribed to art song Their creative process is also examined and synthesised with existing literature on emotion and referentialism in music Dictionary Catalog of the Dance Collection New York Public Library. Dance Collection, 1974 Berlioz Studies Peter Bloom, 2006-11-02 This volume contains nine substantial essays by the world's leading Berlioz scholars They cover various aspects of Berlioz's life and works and represent an important contribution to Berlioz research The book includes essays based on documents both biographical and musical that give us among other things a portrait of the artist as a young man and a revealing view of an important but little studied work of his maturity There are readings of Romeo et Juliette and La Damnation de Faust that wrestle anew with the problems of the relationships between literature and music and as Berlioz's music nearly always requires with the problems of genre Two views of Berlioz's Les Nuits d' are presented which ask when and why the work was conceived and how the work coheres The practical question of Berlioz's metronome marks are here thoroughly studied for the first time The volume closes with a novel piece in dialogue form by the elder statesman of Berlioz scholars Jacques Barzun who treats with exceptional grace the profound issues raised by Berlioz the man and musician
