equally heroic fighters like Roger Lerseth and Ted Sienecki The war in the skies above Vietnam still stands as the longest our nation has ever fought For fourteen years American pilots dropped bombs on the Southeast Asian countryside eventually more than eight million tons of them In doing so they lost over 8 588 fixed wing aircraft and helicopters They did not win the war Ironically Vietnam though one of our least popular wars produced one of the most effective groups of warriors our nation has ever seen men of dedication professionalism and courage Sherwood draws on nearly three hundred interviews to tell stories of great pilots and great planes in the words of the men themselves Fliers recall jets such as McDonnell Douglas s famous F 4 Phantom a Corvette with wings the F 05 Thunderchief the workhorse of the war the F 8 Crusader the last of the gun fighters and the block nosed but revolutionary A 6 Intruder with its fully computerized attack systems terrain mapping radar and digital all weather navigation system Fast Movers offers fascinating portraits based on Sherwood s interviews and declassified naval archives of Vietnam s POWs Pilots lucky enough to suffer only broken bones and burns from the violence of 1960s era Martin Baker ejection seats struggled to find honorable ways to negotiate half decade long periods in captivity Passive resistance like Commander Jeremiah Denton s famous blinking of TORTURE in Morse Code was sometimes successful often brutally reprised Against all odds the pilots spawned a culture of success in the midst of failure frustration and devastation Fast Movers captures a hidden and crucial story of America s least successful war Quick Draw Shu Ejima,2014-04-29 Storytelling is at its apex although the story itself begins with a rather mediocre murder The background scenery takes place from the Californian West Coast to the deep forgotten land of Mojave Desert The author sets readers eye on a LAPD detective investigating a family massacre in Los Angeles Actions explosions and scorching grounds thugs and rogues standing with full intention to kill the opponent the bloody vengeance of a swordsman with a dark past this novel reaches a height of a hard boiled crime action with great surprising conclusion with contemporary touch of urban mythos Once you start turning pages there is no turning back Quick Draw s venom will taint you with an uncontrollable addiction to read on Give Me a Fast Ship Thomas J. Cutler,2025-10-21 Award winning author Thomas J Cutler offers an in depth and inspiring look at the truly heroic story of Ernest Evans and the crew of USS Johnston during the Battle of Leyte Gulf in October 1944 The term hero is overused today but the story of Ernest Evans and the crew of USS Johnston DD 557 during the epic Battle of Leyte Gulf in October 1944 is one of true heroism that may be equaled but never surpassed in the annals of American naval history Undaunted by a vastly superior Japanese task force bearing down on their ship Commander Evans crew laid down a smoke screen launched all torpedoes and opened fire with the main battery of five 5 inch guns diverting the Japanese fleet s attention from the vulnerable escort carriers under their protection Evans courageous leadership earned him a posthumous Medal of Honor and his indomitable fighting spirit made him a true legend in the U S Navy This inspiring book offers an in depth look at Evans the Johnston and the ship s crew Award winning author Thomas J Cutler relies heavily on interviews he conducted with surviving crew members as well as his own experiences while serving as an enlisted man in a similar destroyer Readers can almost feel the sting of salt spray on their faces as Cutler presents a gripping account of Johnston's year of service from her commissioning to her sinking off Samar in October 1944 Often reading like a novel this is a fascinating and poignant history of not only the ship and the crew but of her Native American skipper who forced to retreat in the early days of the war fulfilled his commissioning day promise to never again run from the enemy Evans was a 1935 Naval Academy graduate serving as executive officer of the aging destroyer USS Alden in the far off Asiatic Fleet when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor Left virtually behind the lines as the Japanese rampaged their way around the Western Pacific Alden was among only four U S warships to escape in the aftermath of the Battle of the Java Sea in February 1942 Spending the next year in frustratingly mundane operations until given command of the newly built Fletcher class destroyer Johnston Evans then led his ship in gunfire missions during island hopping assaults in the Marshalls Carolines and Marianas before Johnston faced her ultimate challenges in the Philippines A story for the ages readers will experience the tedium and the terror of life at sea the unique challenges of naval combat and the horrors of trying to survive while adrift in hostile waters They will know the terrible waste and the agonies of war but will be awed by what human beings can do in the face of great adversity and in the presence of inspirational leadership The causes for which these men fought and sacrificed have faded with time the machines they used to carry out their deadly business are now rusted relics of another era and the waters show no trace of their wakes But the glory of their deeds will never be forgotten Three Quarters of a Century:
