Gender, Orientalism and the Jewish Nation Lynne M. Swarts, 2020-01-23 Ephraim Moses Lilien 1874 1925 was one of the most important Jewish artists of modern times As a successful illustrator photographer painter and printer he became the first major Zionist artist Surprisingly there has been little in depth scholarly research and analysis of Lilien s work available in English making this book an important contribution to historical and art historical scholarship Concentrating mainly on his illustrations for journals and books Lynne Swarts acknowledges the importance of Lilien s groundbreaking male iconography in Zionist art but is the first to examine Lilien s complex and nuanced depiction of women which comprised a major dimension of his work Lilien s female images offer a compelling glimpse of an alternate independent and often sexually liberated modern Jewish woman a portrayal that often eluded the Zionist imagination Using an interdisciplinary approach to integrate intellectual and cultural history with issues of gender Jewish history and visual culture Swarts also explores the important fin de si cle tensions between European and Oriental expressions of Jewish femininity The work demonstrates that Lilien was not a minor figure in the European art scene but a major figure whose work needs re reading in light of his cosmopolitan and national artistic genius

Sourcebook on Violence Against Women Claire M. Renzetti, Jeffrey L. Edleson, Raquel Kennedy Bergen, 2011 Jonathan Letterman was an outpost medical officer serving in Indian country in the years before the Civil War responsible for the care of just hundreds of men But when he was appointed the chief medical officer for the Army of the Potomac he revolutionized combat medicine over the course of four major battles Antietam Fredericksburg Chancellorsville and Gettysburg that produced unprecedented numbers of casualties He made battlefield survival possible by creating the first organized ambulance corps and a more effective field hospital system He imposed medical professionalism on a chaotic battlefield Where before 20 percent of the men were unfit to fight because of disease squalid conditions and poor nutrition he improved health and combat readiness by pioneering hygiene and diet standards Based on original research and with stirring accounts of battle and the struggle to invent and supply adequate care during impossible conditions this new biography recounts Letterman s life from his small town Pennsylvania beginnings to his trailblazing wartime years and his subsequent life as a wildcatter and the medical examiner of San Francisco At last here is the missing portrait of a key figure of Civil War history and military medicine His principles of battlefield care continue to be taught to military commanders and first responders Journeys Prof. Susan L. Miller, 2018-04-20 More than one in three women in the United States has experienced rape physical violence or stalking by an intimate partner in their lifetime Luckily many are able to escape this life but what happens to them after Journeys focuses on the desperately understudied topic of the resiliency of long term over 5 years survivors of intimate partner violence and abuse Drawing on participant observation research and interviews with women years after the end of their abusive relationships author Susan L Miller shares these women s trials and tribulations and expounds on the factors that facilitated these women s success in gaining inner strength personal efficacy and transformation Written for researchers practitioners students and policy makers in criminal justice sociology and social services Journeys shares stories that hope to inspire other victims and survivors while illuminating the different paths to resiliency and growth

Battle Cries Hillary Potter, 2008-11-01 Contrary to the stereotype of the strong Black woman African American women are more plagued by domestic violence than any other racial group in the United States In fact African American women experience intimate partner violence at a rate 35% higher than white women and about two and a half times more than women of other races and ethnicities This common portrayal can hinder black women seeking help and support simply because those on the outside don t think help is needed Yet as Hillary Potter argues in Battle Cries Black Women and Intimate Partner Abuse this stereotype often helps these African American women to resist and to verbally and physically retaliate against their abusers Thanks to this generalization Potter observes black women are less inclined to label themselves as victims and more inclined to fight back Battle Cries is an eye opening examination of African American women s experiences with intimate partner abuse the methods used to contend with abusive mates and the immediate and enduring consequences resulting from the maltreatment Based on intensive interviews with 40 African American women abused by their male partners Potter s analysis takes into account variations in their experiences based on socioeconomic class education level and age and discusses the common abuses and perceptions they share Combining her remarkable findings with black feminist thought and critical race theory Potter offers a unique and significant window through which we can better understand this understudied though rampant social problem
