

The Sirens

The sirens sing to each other in the street from asphalt to ambush they echo the cry of the fallen soldier

Dragging the wounded from the streets they race to quell the war the crazy time

By dawn they will collapse Exhausted
and sleep the restless sleep of mothers

Then

Under cover of darkness

The pilots will fly again

And angry drunken locomotives will collide in the night with swollen fists and broken glass

While the sirens

Sombre

Wait

Days (Días) Dennis L. Siluk,2014-07-16 Most folks to include poets prefer poetry on death to entail mostly courage and strength I dont disagree completely with that only partly for submissive suffering is also involved yet many folks just do not want to look at both sides of the dying Nowadays things are changing and it is more permissible yet still bold to mix them together and thus here we have just that I prefer true emotions be it aggressive or passive when going through death voyages for such are during a paramount loss of a loved one dying day by day especially ones mother as in Days In the
