Soviet Chinese Relations 1945 197:

The Wars for Asia, 1911-1949 S. C. M. Paine, 2014-10-09 The Wars for Asia 1911 1949 shows that the Western treatment of World War II the Second Sino Japanese War and the Chinese Civil War as separate events misrepresents their overlapping connections and causes The Chinese Civil War precipitated a long regional war between China and Japan that went global in 1941 when the Chinese found themselves fighting a civil war within a regional war within an overarching global war The global war that consumed Western attentions resulted from Japan s peripheral strategy to cut foreign aid to China by attacking Pearl Harbour and Western interests throughout the Pacific in 1941 S C M Paine emphasizes the fears and ambitions of Japan China and Russia and the pivotal decisions that set them on a collision course in the 1920s and 1930s The resulting wars together yielded a viscerally anti Japanese and unified Communist China the still angry rising power of the early twenty first century

Labor and the Chinese Revolution S. Bernard Thomas, 2020-09-23 In the two decade period from 1928 to 1948 the proletarian themes and issues underlying the Chinese Communist Party s ideological utterances were shrouded in rhetoric designed perhaps as much to disguise as to chart actual class strategies Rhetoric notwithstanding a careful analysis of such pronouncements is vitally important in following and evaluating the party s changing lines during this key revolutionary period The function of the proletariat in the complex of policy issues and leadership struggles which developed under the precarious circumstances of those years had an importance out of all proportion to labor s relatively minor role in the post 1927 Communist led revolution 1 2

A History of the Modern Chinese Navy, 1840-2020 Bruce A. Elleman, 2021-05-09 This book provides a comprehensive history of the modern Chinese navy from 1840 to the present Beginning with a survey of naval developments in earlier imperial times the book goes on to show how China has since the mid 19th century four times built or rebuilt its navy after the Opium Wars a navy which was sunk or captured by the Japanese in the war of 1894 1895 during the 1920s and 1930s a navy again sunk or lost to Japan in the war of 1937 1945 in the 1950s a navy built with Soviet help which stagnated following the Sino Soviet split in the early 1960s and finally the present navy which absorbed its predecessor but with the most modern sections dating from the 1990s a navy which continues to grow and prosper The book also shows how the underlying strategic imperative for the Chinese navy has been the defense of China s coasts and major rivers how naval mutiny was a key factor in the overthrow of the Qing and the Nationalist regimes and how successive Chinese governments aware of the potent threat of naval mutiny have restricted the growth independence and capabilities of the navy Overall the book provides at a time when many people in the West view China and its navy as a threat a rich detailed and realistic assessment of the true nature of the Chinese navy and the contemporary factors that affect its development

Soviet Union Challenge Future 4 Alexander Shrtomas, 1998-11-30 This four volume work analyzes the stability problems in the Soviet system Volume 1 contains the conflicting views of scholars from America Europe and Australia all of whom predict changes that they believe will soon shape the Soviet future The interrelated topics of economics and society are discussed in volume 2 Economic difficulties in the USSR are always problems of political power Gorbachev s economic reforms if successful could lead to the creation of a society that is self sufficient in many respects That in turn would reduce the extent of the state and the power of its apparatus and would undermine Soviet leaders economic decision making power on which the political system rests The ideological and cultural crisis is perhaps the most fundamental and fateful one facing the USSR today Volume 3 devoted to the many aspects of this crisis deals with the issues of multinationalism and predicts the collapse of the Soviet system in Russia as unavoidable Volume 4 consists of 19 analyses of the Soviet future by Sovietologists

International Rivalry and Secret Diplomacy in East Asia, 1896-1950 Bruce Elleman, 2019-08-30 East Asia was a major focus of struggle between the United States and the Soviet Union during the Cold War of 1945 to 1991 with multiple hot and cold conflicts in China Korea and Vietnam The struggle for predominance in East Asia however largely predated the Cold War as this book shows with many examples of the United States and Russia the Soviet Union working to exercise and increase control in the region The book focuses on secret treaties 26 of them signed from the mid 1890s through 1950 when secret agreements between China and the USSR including several concerning the Chinese Eastern Railway gave Russia greater control over Manchuria and Outer Mongolia One of the most important was negotiated in 1945 when Stalin signed the Sino Soviet Friendship Treaty with Chiang Kai shek and the Chinese Nationalists that included a secret protocol granting the Soviet Navy sea control over the Manchurian littorals This secret protocol excluded the US Navy from landing Nationalist troops at the major Manchurian ports thereby guaranteeing the Chinese Communist victory in Northeast China from Manchuria the Chinese Communists quickly spread south to take all of Mainland China To a large degree therefore this formerly undiscussed secret diplomacy set the underlying conditions for the Cold War in East Asia
