s position towards Namibia during the Cold War West German foreign policy towards Namibia at the height of the Namibian liberation struggle is investigated and discussed against the backdrop of rivalry with East Germany The two states deeply diverging policies characterised in this context by competition for influence over SWAPO were strongly affected by the Cold War rivalry between the capitalist West and the communist East Yet ultimately the dynamics of rapprochement helped to bring about Namibia s independence This book is based upon a doctoral dissertation presented to the University of Cape Town in 2016 Kern conducted research in the National Archives of Namibia and in German archives and his work draws on interviews with contemporary witnesses
