of the medical pharmacological industry and suggests alternatives to these remedies. The contributors, psychologists, sociologists, and health experts, are also gender experts and feminist scholars who recognize the ways in which gender is an important aspect of the human experience. In this eye-opening work, they challenge the marketing and science that increasingly render women's bodies and experiences as a series of symptoms, diseases, and dysfunctions that require treatment by medical professionals who prescribe pharmaceutical and surgical interventions. Each article in the book addresses the marketing of a specific condition that has been constructed in a way that convinces a woman that her body is inadequate or her experience and behavior are not good enough. Among the topics addressed are menstruation, menopause, pregnancy, post partum adjustment, sexual desire, weight, body dissatisfaction, moodiness, depression, grief, and anxiety.
