Space Carnival:

Thinking Space Mike Crang, Nigel Thrift, 2002-09-11 Thinking Space looks at a range of social theorists and asks what role space plays in their work what difference if any it makes to their concepts and what difference such an appreciation makes to the way we might think about space

Performing Disfiguration Akhila Vimal C., 2025-08-09 This book explores the processes of disfiguration in the classical and ritual healing performances of India with a particular focus on the rich and diverse performance traditions of Kerala It examines three modes of disfiguration blood madness and laughter to offer unique insights into how these elements shape the performative body By drawing on Kerala s distinctive cultural and ritual contexts this work provides a deep understanding of the region s embodied practices Written from an interdisciplinary perspective the book blends performance studies with detailed ethnographic descriptions to capture the nuances of pain and affect It challenges and subverts normative notions of performance offering a fresh lens through which to view these dynamic traditions This book serves as an invaluable resource for scholars of dance performance studies and practitioners seeking to explore the interplay between region ritual and disfiguration in Indian performance forms

Carnivalizing Reconciliation Hanna Teichler, 2021-10-15 Transitional justice and national inquiries may be the most established means for coming to terms with traumatic legacies but it is in the more subtle social and cultural processes of memory work that the pitfalls and promises of reconciliation are laid bare This book analyzes within the realms of literature and film recent Australian and Canadian attempts to reconcile with Indigenous populations in the wake of forced child removal As Hanna Teichler demonstrates their systematic emphasis on the subjectivity of the victim is problematic reproducing simplistic narratives and identities defined by victimization Such fictions of reconciliation venture beyond simplistic narratives and identities defined by victimization offering new opportunities for confronting painful histories

A Short History of Western Performance Space David Wiles, 2003-10-02 This innovative book provides a historical account of performance space within the theatrical traditions of western Europe David Wiles takes a broad based view of theatrical activity as something that occurs in churches streets pubs and galleries as much as in buildings explicitly designed to be theatres He traces a diverse set of continuities from Greece and Rome to the present including many areas that do not figure in standard accounts of theatre history

The Evolution of Space in Russian Literature Katharina Hansen Löve, 2023-07-31 This book is concerned with the literary development of the narrative category of space in Russian literature from Romanticism until Modernism It consists of two parts The theoretical introduction renders a survey of some major 20 th century theories on literary development in the tradition of Russian Formalism and Czech Structuralism A critical discussion is given of the cultural and stylistic typologies of the soviet scholar D Lichacev and the semiotician I Smirnov Furthermore the ideas on literary space as they were developed by two important representatives of the Moscow Tartu School of Semiotics Ju Lotman and V Toporov are described together with the method of literary analysis they offer The contents of the second part of the book are analyses of the structure of space in the following narrative works Mcyri by M Ju Lermontov Nevskij prospekt by N V Gogol Oblomov by I A Goncarov V tolpe by F Sologub and Kotlovan by A Platonov The analyses are accompanied by an interpretation of the story based on the spatial details in the text It appears that both continuity and change characterize the development of literary space This two fold nature of the evolutionary proces comes to the fore through recurrence of spatial archetypes in all the periods under discussion and through ambivalence of meaning as a result of the semiotization of literary space in each literary work
