Space Culture And Power New Identities In Globalizing Cities:

Space, Culture and Power Ayşe Öncü, Petra Weyland, 1997 Large cities in both the North and the South are caught in the contradictory logics of globalization and localization This work looks at how ethnic minorities tribal groupings and marginalized subcultures in urban areas appropriate contemporary discourses of consumerism Islam human rights to voice new cultural alternatives Through a variety of cities including Beirut Berlin Cairo Istanbul Manila and Singapore it explores how social and cultural boundaries are renegotiated as new social networks of global trade and finance create new opportunity spaces It looks at the political agendas and strategies of groups who mobilize to seize upon these openings and aims to show how the global is translated by different urban groups into practices which transform physical social and cultural spaces

Spaces of Global Cultures Anthony King, 2004-08-02 SDraws on social cultural and postcolonial writings and architectural evidence from various cities around the world to examine existing theories of globalization and also develop new ones

Race and Power Gargi Bhattacharyya, John Gabriel, Stephen Small, 2016-04-29 Reviewing cutting edge debates around racial politics and the culture and economy of globalization this book draws together a wide range of important contemporary debates in a clear and concise way for undergraduate students Far from concluding that racism is over the authors contend that the forces of globalization inhabit older cultures of racial division in order to safeguard the economic interests of the privileged Arguing that the unspoken culture of whiteness informs much that passes in the name of globalization the book suggests that we are witnessing a reformulation of economic relations around global racisms Alongside these shifts in economic relations racialized identities evolve to encompass mixed heritages and mixed cultures both in personal identities and in lifestyle choices This is one of the few texts that concentrates on the theory of race rather than politics It looks at race in global terms and at whiteness as a part of ethnic studies

City Worlds Doreen B. Massey, John Allen, Steve Pile, 1999 Analysing cities through spatial understanding this book explores how different worlds within the city are brought into close proximity and outlines new ways to address some of the ambiguities of cities their promise potential and problems

Responding to Globalization Selvaraj Velayutham, 2007 Investigates the Singapore Government's approach to the construction of national identity This book focuses on the global national nexus the tensions between the necessity to embrace the global to ensure economic survival yet needing a committed population to support the perpetuation of the nation state and its economic success

City Worlds John Allen, Doreen Massey, Steve Pile, 2005-06-23 For the first time in history half of the world's population is living in mega cities Never before have we confronted such a geography of the world's people Analysing cities through spatial understanding City Worlds explores how different worlds within the city are brought into close proximity The authors outline new ways to address the ambiguities of cities their promise and potential their problems and threats

Urban Geography Michael Pacione, 2009 This is the most comprehensive and readable book on urban geography in the array of contemporary literature on the subject

The

Sociology of Islam Tugrul Keskin, 2011 Attempts to make a connection between the economic system and its social and political consequences within Muslim societies To do this this book examines the role of Islam within Muslim societies in the context of neoliberal economic processes in a globalized world Tourism, Ethnic Diversity and the City Jan Rath, 2007-05-07 Informative and enlightening Rath fills a gap in existing research in terms of how immigration relates to urban tourism and investigates the new theoretical insights using revealing international case studies Urban Change and Citizenship in Times of Crisis Bryan S. Turner, Hannah Wolf, Gregor Fitzi, Jürgen Mackert, 2020-04-07 The contributions to Urban neo liberalisation bring together critical analyses of the dynamics and processes neo liberalism has facilitated in urban contexts Recent developments such as intensified economic investment and exposure to aggressive strategies of banks hedge funds and investors and long term processes of market and state led urban restructuring have produced uneven urban geographies and new forms of exclusion and marginality These strategies have no less transformed the governance of cities by subordinating urban social life to rationalities and practices of competition within and between cities and they also heavily impact on city inhabitants experience of everyday life Against the backdrop of recent austerity politics and a marketisation of cities this volume discusses processes of urban neo liberalisation with regard to democracy and citizenship inclusion and exclusion opportunities and life chances It addresses pressing issues of commodification of housing and home activation of civil society vulnerability and the right to the city
