Beckwith,2019-05-23 Charting Memory Recalling Medieval Spain elaborates an interdiscursive picture of how Medieval Spain has been remembered by various Arab Jewish and Hispanic peoples from well before 1492 to the present The collection breaks with traditional foci on the legacies of separate Iberian communities and their descendants and on limited largely textual sets of their related cultural practices In distinct ways this collection takes a multi ethnic and multi modal approach departing from sociologist Maurice Halbwachs premise that collective memories form not within individuals alone but through the inner and inter workings of actual and conceptual social milieux The volume hereby foregrounds the constitutive roles of communities created through prayer literary resonances architecture musical performance and name giving in shaping memories of medieval Spanish contexts as well as complex identities in the Balkans the Near and Middle East North Africa Latin American and the United States The ten original essays in this collection by international specialists in anthropology ethnomusicology literary criticism folklore and onomastics are not arranged according to Arab Jewish and Hispanic cultural memories of medieval Spain Instead the collection s unique comparative emphasis illuminates ways in which various peoples have re articulated memories relating to medieval Spain in and across physical temporal and social locations with different types and degrees of impact
