Sparks From A Nine Pound Hammer:

Sparks from a Nine-pound Hammer Steve Scafidi, 2001 Winner of the Levis Reading Prize Tell me a story of speed and tell it to me fast for the light is gaining and I will wake and with this body break the barrier between what I dream and what my dreaming means Sometimes a fact swings down like a hammer and we are changed The fact of loss the fact of desire and all the wild unruly facts of history hammer down and sparks fly up This then is a collection of facts In a rushing rolling style poems sweep to the edge of falling apart take great delight in defying that dissolution and come upon a thing redemptive and clarifying the fact of love In a world that doesn't really care whether we live or die Steve Scafidi writes tell it you do and why Against the harrowing fact of death Scafidi celebrates dream and desire and the sweet erotics of springtime Witnessing the budding of muscle trees the nakedness of a lover and the furious plowing of a river in the month of April amounts to a sensual equivalent of hope And yet the facts of history from Troy to Rome to Montgomery Alabama arouse a great dread of our own cruelties The truth of the South the poems show is often a brutal mix of ignorance and force that America learned from the great classical civilizations From the unthinkable to the quietly heroic somehow we have emerged Sparks from a Nine Pound Hammer celebrates that fact most of all The Nine Pound Hammer John Claude Bemis, 2010-08-10 What if John Henry had a son Twelve year old Ray is haunted by the strangest memories of his father whom Ray swears could speak to animals Now an orphan Ray jumps from a train going through the American South and falls in with a medicine show train and its stable of sideshow performers The performers turn out to be heroes defenders of the wild including the son of John Henry They are hiding the last of the mythical Swamp Sirens from an ancient evil known as the Gog Why the Gog wants the Siren they can't be sure but they know it has something to do with rebuilding a monstrous machine that John Henry gave his life destroying years before a machine that will allow the Gog to control the will of men and spread darkness throughout the world The Best American Poetry 2014 David Lehman, Terrance Hayes, 2014-09-09 Collects poems chosen by the editors as the best of 2014 featuring works by John Ashbery Anne Carson Mary Ruefle Frederick Seidel and others Outlaw Style R. T. Smith, 2007-11-01 Outlaw Style is a collection of narrative and lyric poems many of them in the tradition of Robert Browning's dramatic monologues While gothic imagery humor and nineteenth century diction and reference alternate and interweave the four thematic currents that converge in the collection are music race spirituality and the impact of monstrosity on somewhat innocent bystanders Poems like Dar He Scuppernongs and Plantation of the Mad address the history of American racial intolerance with muted horror while the final series of poems explores the roots and impact of traditional music from unsettling songs of the Carter Family through Delta Blues and the haunting ballad Strange Fruit The collection also features poems such as Shepherd Ollie Strawbridge on the Chicken Business which question the nature of spirituality and the central section The Booth Prism performs a kind of séance in which the author channels the voices of many of the people from Anna Surratt Tonry to Booth's lovers and siblings whose lives were altered by contact with Lincoln's assassin Throughout Outlaw Style formal and vernacular rhythms stand in counterpoint images of violence excavate a stark and troubling beauty and history and mystery fuse and feud as the landscape and culture of the American South are presented for interrogation and understanding

Good Poems Various, 2003-08-26 Every day people tune in to The Writer's Almanac on public radio and hear Garrison Keillor read them a poem And here for the first time is an anthology of poems from the show chosen by the narrator for their wit their frankness their passion their utter clarity in the face of everything else a person has to deal with at 7 a m The title Good Poems comes from common literary parlance For writers it's enough to refer to somebody having written a good poem Somebody else can worry about greatness Mary Oliver's Wild Geese is a good poem and so is James Wright's A Blessing Regular people love those poems People read them aloud at weddings people send them by e mail Good Poems includes poems about lovers children failure everyday life death and transcendence It features the work of classic poets such as Emily Dickinson Walt Whitman and Robert Frost as well as the work of contemporary greats such as Howard Nemerov Charles Bukowski Donald Hall Billy Collins Robert Bly and Sharon Olds It's a book of poems for anybody who loves poetry whether they know it or not

Seriously Funny Barbara Hamby, David Kirby, 2010 Can serious poetry be funny Chaucer and Shakespeare would say yes and so do the authors of these 187 poems that address timeless concerns but that also include comic elements Beginning with the Beats and the New York School and continuing with both marquee name poets and newcomers Seriously Funny ranges from poems that are capsized by their own tomfoolery to those that glow with quiet wit to ones in which a laugh erupts in the midst of terrible darkness Most of the selections were made in the editors' battered compact car otherwise known as the Seriously Funny Mobile Unit During the two years in which Barbara Hamby and David Kirby made their choices they'd set out with a couple of boxes of books in the back seat and whoever wasn't driving read to the other When they found that a poem made both of them think but laugh as well they earmarked it Readers will find a true generosity in these poems an eagerness to share ideas and emotions and also to entertain The singer Ali Farka Touré said that honey is never good when it's only in one mouth and the editors of Seriously Funny hope its readers find much to share with others
