Subject to History David Simpson, The Academic Postmodern and the Rule of Literature David Simpson, 1995-12 This critique of the postmodern turn discusses the distinctive aspects of postmodern scholarship the pervasiveness of the literary and the flight from grand theory to local knowledge Defining features of postmodern thought are also discussed here such as storytelling and localism Who Killed Shakespeare Patrick Brantlinger, 2013-09-13 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Dangerous Sexualities Frank Mort, 2002-09-11 Dangerous Sexualities takes a look at how our ideas of health and disease are linked to moral and immoral notions of sex Beginning in the 1830s Frank Mort relates his social historical narratives to the sexual choices and possibilities facing us now This long awaited second edition has been thoroughly updated to include new discussions of eugenics race hygiene and social imperialism in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries With a new and extended bibliography introduction and illustrations this second edition brings a classic into the 21st Century Serial Revolutions 1848 Clare Pettitt, 2022 Shows how a series of revolutions that erupted across Europe in the mid to late 1840s were crucial to the creation of modern ideas of constitutional democracy citizenship and human rights Unsettled Accounts Simon J. James, 2003 Simon J James examines how Gissing s work reveals an unhappy accommodation with money s underwriting of human existence and culture and how daily life in all its forms moral intellectual familial and erotic is transcended or made irrelevant by its commodification Novels such as New Grub Street expose high culture s dependence on the ruthless Darwinism of late Victorian capitalism literary and personal success can only be achieved by understanding and adapting to the immanent and irresistible nature of a market hostile to the development of human self betterment Situated against nineteenth century analyses of monetary relations by thinkers such as Ruskin Mill Marx and Carlyle and novels by Dickens Eliot and Hardy Unsettled Accounts demonstrates how Gissing s work is engagedly modern dealing as it does with changes in the nature of the literary market advertising imperialism the New Woman and the condition of the working classes This groundbreaking new study published 100 years after Gissing s death will be of considerable interest to students researchers and scholars A valuable introduction to Gissing s work it claims a prominent place for him in fin de si cle Victorian literature John Thelwall and the Materialist Imagination Yasmin Solomonescu, 2014-07-17 John Thelwall and the Materialist Imagination reassesses Thelwall s eclectic body of work from the perspective of his heterodox materialist arguments about the imagination political reform and the principle of life itself and his contributions to Romantic era science Pedagogical Economies Cathy Shuman, 2000 This book explores the examination s figurative power for 19th century discourses of subject formation and value through readings of works by Matthew Arnold Anthony Trollope Charles Dickens and John Ruskin writers who were active in the 1850s and 1860s when the examination began to structure a range of British institutions from the working class primary school to the Indian Civil Service Starting Over Judith Newton, 2012-10-16 For more than a decade Judith Newton has been at the forefront of defining and promoting materialist feminist criticism Starting Over brings together a selection of her essays that chart the establishment of feminist literary criticism in the academy and its relation to other forms of cultural criticism including Marxist post Marxist new historicist and cultural materialist approaches as well as cultural studies The essays in Starting Over have functioned as exemplars of interdisciplinary thinking mapping out the ways in which reading strategies and the constructions of history culture identity change and agency in various materialist theories overlap and the ways in which feminist materialist work both draws upon revises and complicates the vision of nonfeminist materialist critiques They are shaped by an awareness that public knowledge is always informed by the so called private realm of familial and sexual relations and that cultural criticism must bring together investigations of daily behaviors economic and social relations and the dynamics of race class gender and sexual struggle Starting Over is a brilliant synthesis of literature history anthropology the many influential trends in contemporary theory and the politics of feminism

Apartment Stories Sharon Marcus, 2023-11-15 In urban studies the nineteenth century is the age of great cities In feminist studies it is the era of the separate domestic sphere But what of the city's homes In the course of answering this question Apartment Stories provides a singular and radically new framework for understanding the urban and the domestic Turning to an element of the cityscape that is thoroughly familiar yet frequently overlooked Sharon Marcus argues that the apartment house embodied the intersections of city and home public and private and masculine and feminine spheres Moving deftly from novels to architectural treatises legal debates and popular urban observation Marcus compares the representation of the apartment house in Paris and London Along the way she excavates the urban ghost tales that encoded Londoners ambivalence about city dwellings contends that Haussmannization enclosed Paris in a new regime of privacy and locates a female counterpart to the flâneur and the omniscient realist narrator the portière who supervised the apartment building In urban studies the nineteenth century is the age of great cities In feminist studies it is the era of the separate domestic sphere But what of the city's homes In the course of answering this question Apartment Stories provides a singular
