Success And Failure In Permanent Family Placement:

Success and Failure in Permanent Family Placement June Thoburn, 1990 Child Welfare: Child placement and children away from home Nick Frost, 2005 This collection focuses on child welfare in its specific sense welfare and social interventions with children and young people undertaken by State bodies or NGO s The term child welfare is deployed differently in diverse international settings In the United Kingdom child welfare tends to refer to individualised programmes for children who have experienced problems in their lives In India to take a contrasting example it can also refer to major housing and nutrition programmes This collection takes an inclusive approach to international perspectives The collection is completed by a new general introduction by the editor individual volume introductions and a full index Titles also available in this series include Medical Sociology November 2004 4 Volumes 495 and the forthcoming collection Health Care Systems 2005 3 Volumes c 395 Child Welfare Services for Minority Ethnic Families June Thoburn, Ashok Chand, Joanne Procter, 2005 Based on extensive studies into child welfare services this important book brings together research into what works in service provision for minority ethnic families Reviewing studies of the nature and adequacy of the services provided and the outcomes for the children and their families this book provides much needed guidance for policy and practice around issues of cultural and ethnic background and identity and puts forward suggestions for future research The authors consider in particular the complex needs and identities of minority ethnic families who might use child welfare services how families using social services view current practice the impact of the formal child protection and court systems on ethnic minority families placement patterns and outcomes for children from the different minority ethnic groups who are in residential care foster care or adopted cultural issues and matching the social worker to the family Drawing on current government statistical returns and the 2001 national census this wide ranging analysis challenges dated research and practice and proposes a revisionary agenda for future research and culturally sensitive child welfare practice making it essential reading for all child welfare professionals

Forty Years of Research, Policy and Practice in Children's Services Nick Axford, Vashti Berry, Michael Little, Louise Morpeth, 2005-06-24 Founded in 1963 Dartington Social Research Unit conducts scientific research into child development within the context of children s services with a view to informing interventions for children in need Originating from a festschrift to celebrate the work of Roger Bullock one of Dartington s first researchers and a Fellow of the Centre for Social Policy this book from a prestigious author team examines developments in children s services over the past forty years providing a context for future policy making Ten key areas are covered including foster care and family support while two overview chapters explore 40 years of Social Research and Gaps in the Knowledge and Future Challenges Evaluation in Child and Family Services Tiziano Vecchiato, Anthony N. Maluccio, Cinzia Canali, As child and family interventions assume greater international application it will be helpful to examine the various ways in which service innovations are being evaluated As demonstrated in the seminar from which these chapters resulted only by sharing our specific professional interests our too frequent problems in measurement our despair in implementing complicated studies and our successes can we advance the evaluation of human services and their outcomes This volume considers a variety of programs and issues in the field of child and family services While different perspectives are evident among the authors in terms of their focus and or emphasis there is common concern about the value of examining each program or service so as to maximize its impact as well as its potential for dissemination Intervention research should spur and motivate cross national efforts not only among researchers but also among social workers and other practitioners from diverse professions engaged in the delivery of human services Such collaboration would contribute to the ultimate goals of achieving greater clarity about the specifics of best practices in child and family services protocols for assessing outcomes and ways of improving service delivery How then can researchers and policymakers in diverse settings within diverse countries improve practice and service delivery on behalf of children and families What particular program findings can be generalized to improve services How can we share and implement new solutions The contributions to this volume address such questions from varying international perspectives Contributors provide answers and generate discussion points for consideration by practitioners as well as researchers The book is a must for social work parishioners in areas involving the delivery of goods as well as services Tiziano Vecchiato is scientific director of the Fondazione Emanuela Zancan Padua Italy Anthony N Maluccio is professor of social work at Boston College Graduate School of Social Work Chestnut Hill Massachusetts Cinzia Canali is research associate at the Fondazione Emanuela Zancan Padua Italy

Child Welfare and Adoption Assistance United States. Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means.

Subcommittee on Public Assistance and Unemployment Compensation,1984 Fostering Adolescents Elaine Farmer,Sue Moyers,Jo Lipscombe,2004-06-23 Based on government commissioned research and part of the Supporting Parents initiative this book addresses each stage of the care process from placement selection to leaving foster care The authors consider which kinds of professional support at which stages make a difference and the foster carer parenting skills that are crucial

The State as Parent Joe Hudson,Burt Galaway,2012-12-06 The thirty five chapters in this book are edited versions of papers presented at the Advanced Research Workshop State Intervention on Behalf of Children and Youth which took place in Maratea Italy February 20 24 1989 The Workshop was attended by leading child welfare researchers from most of the Western countries Represented were scholars and practitioners from disciplines as diverse as law social work neurology economics political science education psychology and psychiatry This variety of disciplines considerably enriched the discussions at the Workshop and is reflected in a set of interesting and we believe potentially useful research papers This book is divided into four sections each dealing with dominant themes of state intervention The first section deals with research on organizing for state intervention and related ways of providing accountability The second section deals with research on young persons in conflict with the law the third with research on child abuse and the final section with research on children in care Many of the matters addressed in these papers relate to more than one of the topical theme headings and therefore might well have been located in different sections of the volume Each section is introduced by an introductory statement that provides an overview of the papers and issues addressed and suggests an agenda of research work to be undertaken These introductions are based largely on workshop discussions and do not necessarily represent the views of their identified authors
