Succession Poems:

Succession , Poems on Bishops by Gregory of Nazianzus and Ephrem the Syrian Giovanni Colpani, 2025-06-16
Gregory of Nazianzus and Ephrem the Syrian are both regarded as foundational poets for their respective literary traditions. They wrote in the same period the 4th Century and they both devoted a cycle of poems to a debated theme of the time: bishops. Aim of this work is enhancing the appreciation of these cycles. Gregory's carmina II 1 10 12 13 17 and Ephrem's carmina nisibena 13 21 as works of literature embedded in the performance and reading practices of the time in theological debates on the episcopal office and in their respective communities. The book compares performance and transmission methods of the two corpora: the word choice and imagery describing the episcopal office and how portraits of real life bishops are influenced by theological expectations on what a bishop should be. Two chapters are devoted to literary phenomena peculiar to each author. This book, the first extensive comparison of these two authors from a literary point of view, will interest scholars of Late Antique poetry and literature, Church history and Patristic theology. A new English translation of both corpora constitutes the appendix. Anglophone Caribbean Poetry, 1970-2001 Emily A. Williams, 2002-12-30
Caribbean poetry written in English has been attracting growing amounts of scholarly attention. The first substantial annotated bibliography of primary and secondary materials related to the topic, this reference chronicles the development of Anglophone Caribbean poetry from 1970 through 2001. Included are nearly 900 entries for anthologies, reference works, conference proceedings, critical studies, interviews, and recorded works. The volume also includes a chronology, an overview of the development and significance of Caribbean poetry in English, and extensive indexes. In 1971 the Association for Commonwealth Literature and Language Studies held a conference on West Indian literature at the University of the West Indies. This was the first assembly for the discussion of West Indian literature by West Indian people on West Indian soil. Since then, interest in Caribbean poetry written in English has grown dramatically. Caribbean poetry was influenced by the American Black Power movement during the 1970s, and women poets began to contribute their voices throughout the 1980s. Caribbean poets have in turn gained greater access to publishing outlets, resulting in a wider international readership and a corresponding increase in scholarly and critical studies. This book is the first substantial annotated bibliography of primary and secondary materials related to Caribbean poetry written in English. The volume begins with the rise of interest in Anglophone Caribbean poetry in the 1970s and continues through 2001. Included are entries for nearly 900 anthologies, reference works, conference proceedings, critical studies, interviews, and recordings. The entries are grouped in chapters devoted to particular types of works. In addition, the volume includes a chronology, a discussion of the history of Anglophone Caribbean poetry, and extensive indexes. The Poems of Alexander Pope: Volume One Julian Ferraro, Paul Baines, 2019-03-21
The Poems of Alexander Pope is a multi-volume edition of the poetry of Alexander Pope, 1688-1744, resulting from a thorough reappraisal of his work from composition through to reception. The annotations and headnotes are full and informative and the layout is designed to enable the reader to navigate easily between the poems the record of variants and the editorial commentary The poems are presented in chronological order of publication with original capitalisation italicisation punctuation and spelling preserved A record of variants to each poem illustrates the changes Pope made in subsequent editions and full editorial annotation sets the poems in appropriate literary historical and cultural contexts This volume contains the poetry that appeared between 1709 and 1714 including the Pastorals and the Rape of the Locke Much of the publication history of these poems shows Pope collaborating with the major writers and publishers of his time as might be expected of a writer whose preparation for a literary career was so meticulous But Pope was also beginning to establish himself on his own account publishing at first anonymously a substantial statement of ideas An Essay on Criticism Another separate pamphlet Windsor Forest constituted his distinctive contribution to the heavy freight of Peace poems prompted by the Treaty of Utrecht In all the poems presented in this volume reveal an engagement with the literary and publishing industry that is at once amenable and independent Poems Edited with Introductions, Various Readings and Notes by J. Schipper William Dunbar,1891 Fifty Poems, 1830-1864 Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson,1927 Poems, 1594-1598 Richard Barnfield,1895 The Poems of Hesiod Hesiod,1983 Hesiod is the first Greek and therefore the first European we can know as a real person for unlike Homer he tells us about himself in his poems Hesiod seems to have been a successful farmer and a rather gloomy though not humorless man One suspects from his concern for the bachelor s lot and some rather unflattering remarks about women that he was never married A close study of both poems reveals the same personality that of a deeply religious man concerned with the problems of justice and fate The Best Poems and Essays of Edgar Allan Poe Edgar Allan Poe,1903 The Poems of William Dunbar William Dunbar,1891
