Telling Stories Steven Cohan, Linda M. Shires, 2013-10-08 First Published in 2002 We are living in a time of rapid and radical social change Modes and categories inherited from the past no longer seem to fit the reality experienced by a new generation New Accents is intended as a positive response to the initiative offered by such a situation Each volume in the series will seek to encourage rather than resist the process of change to stretch rather than reinforce the boundaries that currently define literature and its academic study This book introduces a theoretical framework for studying narrative fiction A narrative recounts a story a series of events in a temporal sequence Telling Stories Steven Cohan, 1988 Telling Stories Steven Cohan, Linda M. The essays are presented chronologically under the headings of Theory and Typology Literature Music Relations Transmedial Narratology and Miscellaneous Transmedial Phenomena and cover a wide spectrum of topics of both historical and contemporary relevance ranging from J S Bach Mozart Schubert and Gulda through Sterne Hardy Woolf and Beckett to Jan Steen Hogarth Magritte and comics The volume should be essential reading for scholars of literature music and art history with an interdisciplinary orientation as well as general readers interested in the fascinating interaction of the arts

Signergy C. J. Conradie, Ronel Johl, Marthinus Beukes, 2010 The title of this volume strives to capture the dynamic scope and range of the essays it contains applying insights into the workings of iconicity to texts as far removed from each other in time as the Medieval tale of a bishop fish and the war poems of 20th century Italian Futurist F T Marinetti and as thematically diverse as the Pilgrim's Progress and the poetry of e e cummings Applications reference both language and linguistics as well as literature and literary theory and related fields such as sign language and translation the former approached from the point of view of Japan Sign Language the latter with reference to translations of the Koran and the Sesotho Bible as well as modern German and English Bible translations On the language side the intricate relationships between sound symbolism and etymology and between analogy and grammaticalization are examined in depth On the literary side the iconic effects of techniques such as enjambment and metrical inversion are considered but also the ways in which an understanding of iconicity can open up meanings in complex poetry like that of the Afrikaans poet T T Cloete in this particular instance three poems inspired by figures as diverse as Dante Paul Klee and the pop icon Marilyn Monroe In view of the fact that form is able to mime meaning and meaning itself can be mimed by meaning the theoretical question is asked on the basis of a wide range of examples from literature language music and other sign systems whether meaning can also mime form An introduction to the work of H C T Muller an early scholar in the field of iconicity highlights a regrettably little known South African contribution to the development of iconicity theory Post-totalitarian Spanish Fiction Robert C. Spires, 1996 This study records an epistemic shift away from logocentric and totalizing approaches to reality by analyzing the links between the novelistic strategies used by Spanish writers from 1975 to 1989 and recent international events and theoretical trends in science mathematics communication studies and art Protean Selves Adrienne Angelo, 2014-08-20 What does it mean to write I in postmodern society in a world in which technological advances and increased globalization have complicated notions of authenticity origins and selfhood Under what circumstances and to what extent do authors lend their scriptural authority to fictional counterparts What role does naming or conversely anonymity play vis vis the writing and written I What aspects of identity are subject to auto fictional manipulations And how do these complicated and multilayered narrating selves problematize the reader's engagement with the text Seeking answers to these questions Protean Selves brings together essays which explore the intricate relations between language self identity otherness and the world through the analysis of the forms and uses of the first person voice Written by specialists of a variety of approaches and authors from across the world the studies in this volume follow up a number of critical inquiries on the thorny problematic of self representation and the representation of the self in contemporary French and francophone literatures and extend the theoretical analysis to narratives and authors who have gained increasing commercial and academic visibility in the twenty first century
