Telling The News Is Not Enough An Editors Challenge To Journalism:

Challenging the News Susan Forde, 2017-09-16 Community media journalists are in essence filling in the gaps left by mainstream news outlets Forde's extensive 10 year study now develops an understanding of the journalistic practices at work in independent and community news organisations Alternative media has never been so widely written about until now

Vidura, 1995 Mass Media Education in Transition Thomas Dickson, 1999-08 An overview of the changes taking place in media education for educators and administrators in comm depts Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1996

Gatekeeping in Transition Timothy Vos, François Heinderyckx, 2015-06-08 Much of what journalism scholars thought they knew about gatekeeping about how it is that news turns out the way it does has been called into question by the recent seismic economic and technological shifts in journalism These shifts come with new kinds of gatekeepers new routines of news production new types of news organizations new means for shaping the news and new channels of news distribution Given these changing realities some might ask does gatekeeping still matter In this internationally minded anthology of new gatekeeping research contributors attempt to answer that question Gatekeeping in Transition examines the role of gatekeeping in the twenty first century from organizational institutional and social perspectives across digital and traditional media and argues for its place in contemporary scholarship about news and journalism Advances in Communications and Media Research, 2007 How Student Journalists Report Campus Unrest Kaylene Dial Armstrong, 2017-11-22

Journalists are trained to tell the stories of others and leave themselves out of their writing Student journalists are no different They spend their days on their college newspaper writing about what happens to others especially when what is happening involves protests sit ins riots hunger strikes and other unrest on the very campuses where they also attend school Now some of these former student reporters and editors tell their own stories of some of the challenges all student journalists face in reporting events that most administrators would rather see not covered at all For some this is the first time the stories of what happened in the newsrooms and behind the scenes will appear in print Some of the issues they discuss include censorship the role of the newspaper as the conscience of the community objective and activist journalism and the challenges of reporting crises The protests covered here represent the many concerns college student protesters have tackled through the decades integration in 1962 the free speech movement of 1964 racial issues and the Vietnam War in 1968 and 1970 and continuing racial issues in the present Many of these former student journalists look back decades to their work in the 1960s Some discuss a more recent protest Looking back they admit they might have done things differently if they had to do it again yet all are fiercely proud of the work they did in recording the first version of history Journalism Without Profit Magda Konieczna, 2018-06-21 As mainstream journalism wanes news nonprofits attempt to fill the gap by providing the kind of quality information that is essential to our democracy This book explores the emergent behaviors of sharing and collaboration that allow them to do so and their potential for success or failure in the 21st century Time,

Change, and the American Newspaper George Sylvie, Patricia D. Witherspoon, 2001-11 This volume combines the study of newspaper management operation with the leadership of change in organizations providing a unique perspective on change in media organizations For scholars students in journalism media management Outlook , 2008-03-03
