Larsen,2023-10-09 What if everything in the Bible has a larger outer context than is usually accounted for Missional and biblical theologies suggest that the Bible presents a grand story like a play with multiple acts The acts typically include creation fall redemption and finally restoration But what if the whole story itself occurs in another larger setting occurring within a mission running in the background throughout the whole Bible How might this aid our research reading and application And why is this being proposed now This book explores these questions The larger context is the production of the place of God a home and homeland wherein God with his people dwell on earth Since place is underdeveloped in biblical studies the book presents a new method for interpreting place Then the book lays out the case that a grand mission to produce the place of God becomes the outer context for the whole Bible Finally the book defends this proposal with an in depth placial commentary of the bookends of the Bible since these bookends provide keys to unlock this message thereby inviting further study on the rest of the Bible and on the implications for this transformative perspective

Priesthood and Temple in John's Apocalypse Timothy B. Tse,2024-12-12 Timothy B Tse argues that while John uses language drawn from the Hebrew Bible s descriptions of YHWH s dwelling place scholarship has overlooked the importance of his spatial transformation of that language Tse thus uses theories relating to Relevance Resistance Theory Critical Space Theory and Conceptual Metaphor to demonstrate that a significant part of John s apocalyptic strategy of resistance is to represent his vision to his audience spatially so that they can experience a divinely ordained alternative to the world in which they live Tse first demonstrates John s attempts to relegate his audience s experience of space to his own revelation John s description of the visionary world creates the metaphors the earth is a Sanctuary and the Saints are its priests Tse argues that under this view life on earth must be evaluated according to the concerns of the Sanctuary which by definition requires the removal of everything impure and the Saints namely all Christians in both the historic and visionary worlds must take priestly responsibility for the earth John therefore portrays the Saints joining in the removal of all impurity upon the earth by fighting as priests in God and the Lamb s war against Satan Babylon and all her impurities Tse concludes that overall John means to realign the church s experience of space so that they understand themselves as priests of the Sanctuary and live according to that reality The Collected Works of Witness Lee, 1984, volume 2 Witness Lee, The Collected Works of Witness Lee 1984 volume 2 contains messages given by Brother Witness Lee from February 6 through 18 1984 During those two weeks Brother Lee held an international training for elders and responsible brothers in Anaheim California The messages that were released at that time were published in four volumes which are included in this volume of The Collected Works of Witness Lee The contents of this volume are divided into four sections as follows 1 Six messages given in Anaheim California on February 6 and 7 These messages were previously published in a seven chapter book entitled Elders Training Book 1 The Ministry of the New Testament and are included in this volume under the same title 2 Twelve messages given in Anaheim California on February 8 through 11 These messages were previously published in a thirteen chapter book entitled Elders Training Book 2 The Vision of the Lord s Recovery and are included in this volume under the same title 3 Nine messages given in Anaheim California on February 13 through 15 These messages were previously published in a thirteen chapter book entitled Elders Training Book 3 The Way to Carry Out the Vision and are included in this volume under the same title 4 Nine messages given in Anaheim California on February 16 through 18 These messages were previously published in an eleven chapter book entitled Elders Training Book 4 Other Crucial Matters concerning the Practice of the Lord s Recovery and are included in this volume under the same title

The Bible and the Dead Sea Scrolls: The scrolls and Christian origins James H. Charlesworth, 2006 The recovery of 800 documents in the eleven caves on the northwest shores of the Dead Sea is one of the most sensational archeological discoveries in the Holy Land to date These three volumes the very best of critical scholarship demonstrate in detail how the scrolls have revolutionized our knowledge of the text of the Bible the character of Second Temple Judaism and the Jewish beginnings of Christianity

"Those Who Call Themselves Jews" Philip L. Mayo, 2006-08-01 The nature of Jewish Christian relations at the end of the first century has been a subject of serious study and considerable debate The time between 70 and 150 CE is held to be a volatile time in that Jewish Christian relations were quickly although not uniformly deteriorating This is a time referred to as the partings of the ways when the church was emerging as a religion apart from Judaism Although it has often been neglected in this study of particular interest is the Apocalypse of John since it was written in this dark and turbulent time in Jewish Christian relations John who is a Jewish Christian is writing to what are likely predominantly Gentile churches At first he appears to deny the very name Jew to his ethnic kin while accusing them of belonging to Satan 2 9 3 9 Nevertheless he does not abandon his own Jewish background and theology He makes broad use of the Hebrew Scriptures and Jewish cultic imagery while maintaining a Christian understanding that Jesus is the fulfillment of God s redemptive plan What is of particular interest is how he adopts and adapts this imagery and language and applies it to the church It is John s mix of Jewish imagery with a Christian message that may provide some insight into his perspective on the relationship between these two increasingly polarized sects What exactly this perspective is constitutes the subject of the present discussion

A Jewish Apocalyptic Framework of Eschatology in the Epistle to the Hebrews Jihye Lee, 2021-11-18 In contrast to scholarly belief that the author of the Epistle to the Hebrews envisions the transcendent heavenly world as the eschatological inheritance of God s people Jihye Lee argues that a version of an Urzeit Endzeit eschatological framework as observed in some Jewish apocalyptic texts provides a plausible background against which the arguments of Hebrews are most comprehensively explained. Instead of transcendence to the heavenly world that will come after the destruction of the shakable creation, Lee suggests the possibility of a more dualistic new world. By first defining Urzeit Endzeit eschatology, Lee is then able to explore its place in both pre and post 70 CE Second Temple Judaism. In examining Enoch, the Qumran Texts, Jubilees, the Liber Antiquitatum Biblicarum, 4 Ezra, and 2 Baruch, and finally the Book of Revelation, Lee compares a multitude of eschatological visions and the different depictions of the transformation of the world, judgement, and the new world to come. Bringing these texts together to analyse the issue of God's Rest in Hebrews and the nature of the Unshakable Kingdom, Lee concludes that Hebrews envisions the kingdom as consisting of both the revealed heavenly world and the renewed creation as the eschatological venue of God's dwelling place with his people.
