Tensions Between Citizenship And Discipleship A Case Study:

Tensions Between Citizenship and Discipleship Nelle G. Slater, 1989 American Congregations, Volume 2 James P. Wind, James W. Lewis, 1998-09 Continuing this two part series on American religion Volume 2 addresses three questions Where is the congregation located on the broader map of American cultural and religious life What are congregations distinctive roles in American culture And what patterns of leadership characterize congregations in America Caring for the Commonweal Parker J. Palmer, 1990 Law and Asylum Simon Behrman, 2018-06-18 In contrast to the claim that refugee law has been a key in guaranteeing a space of protection for refugees this book argues that law has been instrumental in eliminating spaces of protection not just from one's persecutors but also from the grasp of sovereign power By uncovering certain fundamental aspects of asylum as practised in the past and in present day social movements namely its concern with defining space rather than people and its role as a space of resistance or otherness to sovereign law this book demonstrates that asylum has historically been antagonistic to law and vice versa In contrast twentieth century refugee law was constructed precisely to ensure the effective management and control over the movements of forced migrants To illustrate the complex ways in which these two paradigms asylum and refugee law interact with one another this book examines their historical development and concludes with in depth studies of the Sanctuary Movement in the United States and the Sans Papiers of France The book will appeal to researchers and students of refugee law and refugee studies legal and political philosophy ancient medieval and modern legal history and sociology of political movements Taking on Practical Theology Courtney Goto, 2018-08-20 In Taking on Practical Theology Courtney T Goto explores the regnant paradigm that shapes knowledge production and that preserves power privilege and historic communal injury even as scholars intend to enlighten and transform communities Approaching context as a case study Goto illumines how this commonly used taken for granted concept is idolized Though practical theologians are sensitive to context researchers often fail to consider how their own assumptive world dictates and influences their practices of research teaching and engaging in scholarly conversations These practices unwittingly validate scholars who enjoy the most social capital while inflicting harm on both communities they research and on colleagues and students who do not fit or fit less well the norms of the majority

A Fundamental Practical Theology Don S. Browning, 1995-12-01 On congregational care religious education theological education clinical pastoral education and church consultation The Limits of Hospitality Jessica Wroblewski, 2012-04-01 Practicing hospitality is central to building a civil society not to mention living a Christian life It can be enriching and joy filled but it can also be profoundly demanding and sometimes even dangerous In The Limits of Hospitality Jessica Wroblewski explores the ethical questions surrounding the practice of hospitality particularly hospitality that is informed by Christian theological commitments While there is no algorithm that distinguishes between ethically legitimate and illegitimate boundaries the variety of circumstances in which hospitality is relevant and the nature of hospitality itself make advocating firm and fixed boundaries difficult How much more so for Christians for whom the practice of hospitality should be a manifestation of agape a participation in God's eschatological welcome extended to all people through Jesus Christ Are limits to hospitality then merely a regrettable concession to our finite and fallen condition Wroblewski offers a rich theological reflection that will interest anyone who has a role in the practice of hospitality in community Whether such communities are families households churches educational institutions or nation states God and Caesar at the Rio

Grande Hilary Cunningham, 1995 The author offers a fascinating account of the history and growth of the Sanctuary Movement as she demonstrates how religion shapes and is shaped by political culture Focusing on the Sanctuary located in Tucson Arizona she explores the movement primarily through the experiences of everyday participants conveyed through interviews with Sanctuary workers as well as reproductions of documents from her stays in Arizona Mexico and Guatemala

The Encyclopedia of Christianity, Volume 1 (A-D) Erwin Fahlbusch, Jan Lochman, John Mbiti, Jaroslav Pelikan, Lukas Vischer, 2025-04-14 A major intellectual resource Jaroslav Pelikan from the foreword The multiple award winning Encyclopedia of Christianity EC copublished by Brill and Eerdmans is a monumental five volume work presenting the history and current state of the Christian faith in its rich spiritual and theological diversity around the world Volume 1 A D contains 465 articles featuring articles on all but the smallest countries of the world including the former communist nations that have gained independence since 1989 the latest statistical information from David B Barrett on the religious affiliation and ecclesiastical breakdown of each country and continent articles on doctrines denominations and social and ethical issues in relation to the churches biographical articles on prominent figures through church history The Encyclopedia of Christianity is also available online A Particular Place Nancy L. Eiesland, 2000 Focusing on how the religious congregations all Protestant of a particular town adapted to a rapid influx of newcomers this book makes a significant contribution to sociological literature in an interesting narrative style Eiesland's work is the perfect complement to that of other major contributors in the field such as Robert Wuthnow Wade Clark Roof William McKinney David A Rootzen Jackson Carroll and Nancy T Ammerman
