Terms Of Political Discourse Pb:

Democracy Reinvented Hollie Russon Gilman, 2016-01-05 Participatory Budgeting the experiment in democracy that could redefine how public budgets are decided in the United States Democracy Reinvented is the first comprehensive academic treatment of participatory budgeting in the United States situating it within a broader trend of civic technology and innovation This global phenomenon which has been called revolutionary civics in action by the New York Times started in Brazil in 1989 but came to America only in 2009 Participatory budgeting empowers citizens to identify community needs work with elected officials to craft budget proposals and vote on how to spend public funds Democracy Reinvented places participatory budgeting within the larger discussion of the health of U S democracy and focuses on the enabling political and institutional conditions Author and former White House policy adviser Hollie Russon Gilman presents theoretical insights indepth case studies and interviews to offer a compelling alternative to the current citizen disaffection and mistrust of government She offers policy recommendations on how to tap online tools and other technological and civic innovations to promote more inclusive governance While most literature tends to focus on institutional changes without solutions this book suggests practical ways to empower citizens to become change agents Reinvesting in Democracy also includes a discussion on the challenges and opportunities that come with using digital tools to re engage citizens in governance

Varieties of Governance G. Capano, M. Howlett, M. Ramesh, 2015-05-26 This edited collection examines various facets of governance the organization and steering of political processes within society for a better understanding of the complexities of contemporary policy making

Liberalism Divided Michael Freeden, 1986-02-13 Liberalism Divided is the first detailed study of British liberal thought in the interwar years The author reassesses progressive liberalism in light of the partial reaction against the state provoked by World War I The division of liberal thought into two streams left liberalism and centrist liberalism is explored and the changing political theories of major new liberals such as L T Hobhouse and J A Hobson are contrasted with centrist liberal ideas

Civil Society and the State in Left-Led Latin America Barry Cannon, Professor Peadar Kirby, 2012-10-11 Timely and unique this innovative volume provides a critical examination of the role of civil society and its relation to the state throughout left led Latin America Featuring a broad range of case studies from across the region from the Bolivian Constitution to participative budgeting in Brazil to the communal councils in Venezuela the book examines to what extent these new initiatives are redefining state civil society relations Does the return of an active state in Latin America imply the incorporation of civil society representatives in decision making processes Is the new left delivering on the promise of participatory democracy and a redefinition of citizenship or are we witnessing a new democratic deficit A wide ranging analysis of a vital issue both for Latin America and beyond

Radicals in Power Gianpaolo Baiocchi, 2003-10-17 This book throws real light on the single most strategic tendency in Brazilian politics in recent years

At the Sharp End: Uncovering the Work of Five Leading Dramatists Peter Billingham, 2007-11-05 What value does theatre have in Britain

at the beginning of the twenty first century How has theatre responded to the challenge of remaining relevant in the media saturated world of today These are the questions that underpin this stimulating study of some of the leading dramatists of contemporary British theatre At the Sharp End sets the scene examining how the forces that created a revolution in theatre fifty years ago have been replaced by a new wave of political and social issues It goes on to explore the ways in which five key writers have sought to reflect and wrestle with the changing character of modern Britain The work of David Edgar David Greig Mark Ravenhill Tanika Gupta and Tim Etchells company Forced Entertainment is considered with recent plays examined in detail an interview with each writer and suggestions of other writers and plays for reading and comparison At the Sharp End provides the perfect companion for anyone wanting to understand the changing face of contemporary drama and the writers whose work is making an impact on our stages today

International Relations Theory and Philosophy Cerwyn Moore,Chris Farrands,2010-01-04 Discusses the contribution of philosophers and thinkers whose ideas have recently begun to permeate international relations theory and seeks to integrate diverse ideas broadly concerned with the interpretive theory and methods of international relations

The Underside of Politics Sorin Radu Cucu,2013-11 This book explores the relation between nationhood literary culture and globalism in the context of the Cold War struggle over the legacy of European modernity a struggle to represent diverse experiences of the political after World War II and colonialism This book argues that during the Cold War modern political imagination is held captive by the split between two visions of universality freedom in the West vs social justice in the East and by a culture of secrecy that ties national identity to national security The significance of Cold War political modernity is made evident in the staging of dialogues between post 1945 American and Eastern European novelists Kundera with Roth Coover with Popescu and Kis and DeLillo

Birth and Birthgivers Janet Chawla,2006 This volume presents varied essays exploring women s voices agencies and aesthetics in the traditional handling of chilbearing Ayurveda as it comprehends reproduction sohars birth songs birth narratives cord cutters dais knowledge and compensation systems as well as analyses of biomedical dominance and erasure of indigenous knowledge all provide a peek bechind the purdah in this critical reclamation of tradition
