Terracotta Figurines And Model Vehicles Bibliotheca Mesopotamica:

Tell Ahmar on the Syrian Euphrates Guy Bunnens, 2022-07-20 Tell Ahmar also known as Masuwari Til Barsib and Kar Shalmaneser in the first millennium BCE was first inhabited in the sixth millennium during the Ubaid period and progressively developed to become a regional center and in the eighth and seventh centuries a provincial capital of the Assyrian empire. Remains from the third millennium a temple and a funerary complex the second millennium an administrative complex and well preserved houses and the first millennium an Assyrian palace and elite residences are particularly impressive. The book offers an archaeological and historical synthesis of the results obtained by the excavations of François Thureau Dangin 1929-1931 and by the more recent excavations of the universities of Melbourne 1988-1999 and Ligge 2000-2010. It presents a comprehensive and diachronic view of the evolution of the site which by its position on the Euphrates at an important crossroads of ancient communication routes was at the heart of a game of cultural and political interference between Mesopotamia the Mediterranean world and Asia Minor. Bronze Age Anthropomorphic Figurines from Umm El-Marra, Syria Alice Petty, 2006 The subject of this volume is the corpus of 203 Bronze Age anthropomorphic clay figurines and figurine fragments recovered from various archaeological contexts at Umm el Marra Syria between 1994 and 2002. As a class of objects anthropomorphic clay figurines are an important subject of study because they are very common in the archaeological record and yet they are poorly understood. Figurines appear to have been an integral part of daily life for the people of the ancient Near East as early as the Neolithic period and continued to be crafted and used for millennia. Despite this ubiquity many crucial questions about the figurines have yet to be answered: Who or what is being represented? Why does their appearance change over time and what is the relationship between their style and chronology? What were these figurines used for and what can these enigmatic objects tell us about the lives and beliefs of ancient people? Tell Arbid I. Clay Figurines Maciej Makowski, 2016 Sacred Landscapes of Hittites and Luwians Anacleto D'Agostino, Valentina Orsi, Giulia Torri, 2015 Known from the Old Testament as one of the tribes occupying the Promised Land the Hittites were in reality a powerful neighbouring kingdom highly advanced in political organization administration of justice and military genius with a literature inscribed in cuneiform writing on clay tablets and with a rugged and individual figurative art. Newly revised and updated this classic account reconstructs a complete and balanced picture of Hittite civilization using both established and more recent sources. Rural Archaeology in Early Urban Northern Mesopotamia Glenn M. Schwartz, 2015-12-31 This book presents the results of the extensive excavation of a small rural village from the period of emerging cities in upper Mesopotamia modern northeast Syria in the early to middle third millennium BC. Prior studies of early Near Eastern urban societies generally focused on the cities and elites neglecting the rural component of urbanization. This research represents part of a move to rectify that imbalance. Reports on the architecture pottery animal bones plant remains and other varieties of artifacts and ecofacts enhance our understanding of the role of villages in the formation of urban societies the economic relationship between small rural sites and urban centers and status and economic differentiation in villages Among the significant results are the extensive exposure of a large segment of the village area revealing details of spatial and social organization and household economics The predominance of large scale grain storage and processing leads to questions of staple finance economic relations with pastoralists and connections to developing urban centers
