The Bedouin By Weir Shelagh:

Historical Dictionary of the Bedouins Muhammad Suwaed, 2015-10-30 The term Bedouins was given to nomads who came from or lived in the desert and consisted of a sedentary population from the badia desert. However in time it came to define their social economic essence as people who raised grazing animals and were compelled to conduct a nomadic life to live in tents that could be dismantled, carried and re-erected easily and to move with their livelihood and living accommodation according to the environmental conditions those which provided water and grass. Not all Bedouin tribes are of Arabic origin as all Muslim nomadic groups in the area adopted the term Bedouins. There are Bedouin tribes of Turkmen, Kurdish, Baluch and Berberic origin and there are Arabized African people and hybrid people who are categorized as Bedouins. The Historical Dictionary of the Bedouins contains a chronology, an introduction, an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 300 cross-referenced entries on important personalities, politics, economy, foreign relations, religion and culture. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Bedouins.

The Bedouin Shirley Kay, 1978 Culture and Customs of Jordan John A. Shoup, 2006-12-30 After a solid overview of the land, people and history in Chapter 1, Chapter 2 covers religion. Jordan is still a conservative Muslim state with a Sunni Muslim majority that retains good relations with its citizens of other faiths. The discussion of literature and media in Chapter 3 emphasizes the pan-Arabic tradition. In Chapter 4, architecture, art and traditional crafts in Jordan are shown to be linked to the history of the country and its religious and ethnic diversity. In Chapter 5, the cuisine and culture reveal inspiration from the region of Greater Syria. In the Gender, Marriage and Family chapter, Shoup looks at the conservative and powerful family and changing women's roles. Highlighted in the Social Customs chapter are the topics of honor, shame and respect, social clubs and more on women's roles in the middle class. A final chapter on Music and Dance covers everything from their Bedouin roots to Arab rap.

Nomadic Societies in the Middle East and North Africa Dawn Chatty, 2018-11-12 A scholarly volume devoted to an understanding of contemporary nomadic and pastoral societies in the Middle East and North Africa. This volume recognizes the variable mobile quality of the ways of life of these societies which persist in accommodating the nation state of the 20th and 21st century but remain firmly transnational and highly adaptive. Composed of four sections around the theme of contestation, it includes examinations of contested authority and power, space and social transformation, development and economic transformation, and cultures and engendered spaces.

The Bedouin Shelagh Weir, 1990 Ethnic Groups of Africa and the Middle East John A. Shoup, 2011-10-17 This encyclopedia is an essential guide to the different ethno-linguistic groups in Africa and today's complicated Middle East region. Ethnic Groups of Africa and the Middle East contains encyclopedic entries arranged alphabetically within ethno-linguistic classifications. Each entry has four main sections: an introduction identifying the language group where they are found and their numbers; a brief discussion of their origins and early history; a section on cultural life that includes religion, literature, social organization and art and a final section on political organization and recent history The contents are appropriate for high school and undergraduate students as well as for experts who need a refresher on groups in Africa and the Middle East While certain ethnic groups have been combined into a single entry some such as the Tuareg who are a Berber people are described within their own entries because of their importance in history or cultural domination

Encyclopedia of Architectural and Engineering Feats Christine Garnaut,2001-12-06 Encyclopedia of Architectural and Engineering Feats presents more than 200 achievements in architecture and structural engineering in all the inhabited continents from prehistory to the present An architect once described the built environment as the manifestation of the human spirit in stone wood and steel In this new volume readers can explore the most innovative and magnificent architectural expressions of the human spirit from pre history to the present from all parts of the world Readers can visit the Acropolis and Chartres cathedral along with less familiar places like the ruins of Great Zimbabwe once the greatest city in sub Saharan Africa and China s 71 meter high 1 200 year old Grand Buddha carved from stone They ll learn the secrets behind audacious engineering feats like the Panama Canal the U S interstate highway system and the Deltaworks in the Netherlands They will discover that many of these awe inspiring projects were not the work of trained architects and engineers but of underdeveloped communities where unified will tight social organization and shared commitment to a spiritual ideal were more important than the inventions of the Industrial Age
