Sioux City Railroads Rudolph Daniels,2008 Toward the end of the 19th century railroads transformed Sioux City from a western outpost to one of the fastest growing municipalities in the world Prior to the arrival of the railroads Sioux City depended on the Missouri River for transportation The Missouri however was not dependable because of flooding and droughts As an all season mode of transportation the railroads permitted the flourishing of the meatpacking industry in Sioux City In fact it was the large number of different railroad companies that made Sioux City a major agricultural center rather than just another county seat or market town Trains carried cattle and hogs to the plants and then carted away the Sioux City processed products to the nation and to the world
