Sketch-Book of R. Caldecott's Hardpress,2016-06-23 Lewis Carroll Among His Books Charlie Lovett,2015-01-09 Charles Lutwidge Dodgson known better by his pseudonym Lewis Carroll was a 19th century English logician mathematician photographer and novelist He is especially remembered for his children s tale Alice s Adventures in Wonderland and its sequel Through the Looking Glass By the time of Dodgson s death in 1898 Alice the integration of the two volumes had become the most popular children s book in England By the time of his centenary in 1932 it was perhaps the most famous in the world This book presents a complete catalogue of Dodgson s personal library with attention to every book the author is known to have owned or read Alphabetized entries fully describe each book its edition its contents its importance and any particular relevance it might have had to Dodgson The library not only provides a plethora of fodder for further study on Dodgson but also reflects the Victorian world of the second half of the 19th century a time of unprecedented investigation experimentation invention and imagination Dodgson s volumes represent a vast array of academic interests from Victorian England and beyond including homeopathic medicine spiritualism astrology evolution women s rights children s literature linguistics theology eugenics and many others The catalogue is designed for scholars seeking insight into the mind of Charles Dodgson through his books The Making of Women Artists in Victorian England Jo Devereux,2016-08-10 When women were admitted to the Royal Academy Schools in 1860 female art students gained a foothold in the most conservative art institution in England The Royal Female College of Art the South Kensington Schools and the Slade School of Fine Art also produced increasing numbers of women artists Their entry into a male dominated art world altered the perspective of other artists and the public They came from disparate levels of society Princess Louise the fourth daughter of Queen Victoria studied sculpture at the National Art Training School yet they all shared ambition talent and courage Analyzing their education and careers this book argues that the women who attended the art schools during the 1860s and 1870s including Kate Greenaway Elizabeth Butler Helen Allingham Evelyn De Morgan and Henrietta Rae produced work that would accommodate yet subtly challenge the orthodoxies of the fine art establishment Without their contributions Victorian art would be not simply the poorer but hardly recognizable to us today
