Soviet Union In Asia:

The Soviet Union in Asia Geoffrey Jukes, 1973 The Soviet Union and Asia, 1988 The Soviet Union and the Asia-Pacific Region Pushpa Thambipillai, Daniel C. Matuszewski, 1989-06-23 In examining the economic and social reforms of Gorbachev's Soviet Union the contributors to this new study provide a broad portrait of the state of current Soviet relations with the countries of the Asia Pacific region the prospects for change and the perceived role of the Soviet Union in that change Leading established scholars and specialists from the countries of the Asia Pacific region study this new Soviet phenomenon and evince a mixture of enthusiasm and apprehension about Moscow's new policy overtures to the region Mikhail Gorbachev's speech in the Soviet Far East city of Vladivostok on July 28 1986 was widely read and commented upon throughout East and Southeast Asia and raised many unanswered questions How much has the Soviet Union really changed Will China the principal target of Soviet overtures respond positively and if so what will the implications be for the rest of the region What do these sweeping changes mean for the region in practical terms The Soviet Union and the Asia Pacific Region considers these questions and offers insight and provocative commentary on the current attitudes of the many Asia Pacific countries toward the Soviet Union The Soviet Union in the Asia-Pacific Region Teik Soon Lau, Bilveer Singh, Singapore Institute of International Affairs, 1989 The Transformation of Central Asia Pauline Jones Luong, 2004 With the fall of the Soviet Union in 1991 former Communist Party leaders in Central Asia were faced with the daunting task of building states where they previously had not existed Experts on Central Asia here examine the emerging relationship between state actors and social forces in the region Geographic Perspectives on Soviet Central Asia Robert Lewis, 2003-10-04 In a unique survey based on new census data this book highlights the region's geographic economic and ecological problems since 1945 Reshaping Regional Relations Ramesh Thakur, Carlyle A. Thayer, 2019-07-11 Reshaping Regional Relations summarizes the cause and consequences of changes in Asia Pacific region It introduces the lead player in regional change and outlines strategic military political and economical issues that constitute the regional agenda in the 1990s Soviet Relations With South East R.A. Longmire, 1989 Gorbachev's major speech at Vladivostok on 28 July 1986 signalled an increased awareness by the Soviet Union of the importance of the Asia Pacific region Subsequently there have been significant changes in Soviet foreign policy paralleling the programme of wide ranging internal reform and imparting a new look to the USSR's international image The aim of the present work is to chart the development of Soviet policy towards the region since the start of the Bolshevik regime with whether there was any pattern or consistency in that policy Concentration on Soviet activity in a particular part of the world might also serve to throw further light on the much discussed question whether Moscow's policies have in the past been conceived in ideological terms and therefore in some measure pre-determined or whether they were truly ad hoc ideology being used merely as justification Reinventing Regional Security Institutions in Asia and Africa Kei Koga, 2016-12-08 Regional security institutions play a significant role in shaping the behavior of existing and rising regional powers by nurturing security norms and rules monitoring state activities and sometimes imposing sanctions thereby formulating the configuration of regional security dynamics Yet their security roles and influence do not remain constant Their raison d'être objectives and functions experience sporadic changes and some institutions upgrade military functions for peacekeeping operations while others limit their functions to political and security dialogues The question is why and how do these variances in institutional change emerge This book explores the mechanisms of institutional change focusing on regional security institutions led by non great powers It constructs a theoretical model for institutional change that provides a new understanding of their changing roles in regional security which has yet to be fully explored in the International Relations field In so doing the book illuminates why when and how each organization restructures its role function and influence Using case studies of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and the Organization of African Unity OAU African Union AU it also sheds light on similarities and differences in institutional change between regional security institutions

Gorbachev and Southeast Asia (Routledge Revivals) Leszek Buszynski, 2014-04-11 First published in 1992 this book examines Soviet foreign policy towards Southeast Asia in the context of the transformation of the perestroika era in the Soviet Union The discussion begins in 1985 and ends in 1989 with the Soviet partial withdrawal from Cam Ranh Bay Buszynski considers Gorbachev's effort to disengage from the Cambodian problem the weakening of the Soviet alliance with Vietnam and the real effort to overcome old hostilities with growth areas in ASEAN such as Thailand and Singapore This is a fascinating and relevant title of particular value to students with an interest in Russia and the history of international relations in Southeast Asia
