Soweto Now:

The World Jan Morris, 2014-09-08 The travel book of the season Craig Seligman New York Times Book Review The first book to distill Jan Morris's entire body of work into one volume The World is a magnum opus by the most celebrated travel writer in the world To read it is to take an epic armchair journey through the last half of twentieth century history A breathtakingly vivid guide to our greatest cosmopolitan cities and cultures from Manhattan to Venice and from Baghdad to Barbados this book assembles fifty years of Morris's finest travel writing With eyewitness accounts of such seminal moments as the first successful ascent of Everest the Eichmann trial the fall of the Berlin Wall and the handover of Hong Kong The World promises to create an entirely new generation of Jan Morris readers A San Francisco Chronicle Best Book of 2003

The Apartheid City and Beyond David M. Smith, 2003-09-02 Apartheid as legislated racial separation substantially changed the South African urban scene Race group areas remodelled the cities while the creation of homelands mini states and the pass laws controlling population migration constrained urbanization itself In the mid 1980s the old system having proved economically inefficient and politically divisive was replaced by a new policy of orderly urbanization This sought to accelerate industrialization and cultural change by relaxing the constraints on urbanization imposed by state planning The result was further political instability and a quarter of the black or African population housed in shanty towns Negotiations between the Nationalist government and the African National Congress are working towards the end of the old apartheid system Yet the negation of apartheid is only the beginning of the creation of a new society The vested interests and entrenched ideologies behind the existing pattern of property ownership survive the abolition of apartheid laws Beyond race class and ethnicity will continue to divide urban life If the cities of South Africa are to serve all the people the accelerating process of urbanization must be brought under control and harnessed to a new purpose The contributors to this volume draw on a broad range of experience and disciplines to present a variety of perspectives on urban South Africa Dance of Life

Gail Fincham, 2012-04-22 In recent years the work of Zakes Mda novelist painter composer theater director and filmmaker has attracted worldwide critical attention Gail Fincham's book examines the five novels Mda has written since South Africa's transition to democracy Ways of Dying 1995 The Heart of Redness 2000 The Madonna of Excelsior 2002 The Whale Caller 2005 and Cion 2007 Dance of Life explores how refigured identity is rooted in Mda's strongly painterly imagination that creates changed spaces in memory and culture Through a combination of magic realism African orature and intertextuality with the Western canon Mda rejects dualistic thinking of the past and the present the human and the nonhuman the living and the dead the rural and the urban He imbues his fictional characters with the power to orchestrate a reconfigured subjectivity that is simultaneously political social and aesthetic AF Press Clips, 1989-07 People's War Anthea Jeffery, 2014-06-09 Twenty years have passed since South Africans were being shot or hacked or burned to death in political conflict and the memory of the trauma has faded Some 20 500 people were nevertheless killed between 1984 and 1994 The conventional wisdom is that they died at the hands of a state backed Third Force but the more accurate explanation is that they died as a result of the people s war the ANC unleashed As the people s war accelerated from September 1984 intimidation and political killings rapidly accelerated At the same time a remarkably effective propaganda campaign put the blame for violence on the National Party government and its alleged Inkatha surrogate Sympathy for the ANC soared while its rivals suffered crippling losses in credibility and support By 1993 the ANC was able to dominate the negotiating process as well as to control the undefeated South African police and army and bend them to its will By mid 1994 it had trounced its rivals and taken over government People s War shows the extraordinary success of this war in giving the ANC a virtual monopoly on power It also shows in part at least the great cost at which this was achieved Apart from the killings the terror and the destruction that marked the period from 1984 to 1994 the people s war set in motion forces that cannot easily be reversed For violence cannot be turned off like a tap as the ANC suggested and neither can anarchy easily be converted into order Anthea Jeffery holds law degrees from the University of the Witwatersrand and from Cambridge and a doctorate in human rights law from the University of London Her previous books include The Natal Story Sixteen years of conflict and The Truth about the Truth Commission Both books have been acclaimed for their meticulous and objective approach and for breaking new ground on important and contentious issues

My Traitor's Heart Rian Malan, 2018-09-01 An essay collection that offers a fascinating glimpse of post apartheid South Africa from the bestselling author of My Traitor s Heart The Sunday Times The Lion Sleeps Tonight is Rian Malan s remarkable chronicle of South Africa s halting steps and missteps taken as blacks and whites try to build a new country In the title story Malan investigates the provenance of the world famous song recorded by Pete Seeger and REM among many others which Malan traces back to a Zulu singer named Solomon Linda He follows the trial of Winnie Mandela he writes about the last Afrikaner an old Boer woman who settled on the slopes of Mount Meru he plunges into President Mbeki s AIDS policies of the 1990s and finally he tells the story of the Alcock brothers sons of Neil and Creina whose heartbreaking story was told in My Traitor s Heart two white South Africans raised among the Zulu and fluent in their language and customs The twenty one essays collected here combined with Malan s sardonic interstitial commentary offer a brilliantly observed portrait of contemporary South Africa a grimly realistic picture of a nation clinging desperately to hope The Guardian

Braiding My Own Rope Lori J. Cole, 2015-05-15 An innocent white girl was eight years old when Martin Luther King Jr died and the first African American boy James enrolled in her elementary school His rejection by white people caused her significant confusion and distress propelling her toward a lifelong goal of lightening the color line Lori made decisions as a young adult that created an unexpected turn in the road It would be years later before she would pursue the education necessary to grasp each aspect involved in the color line As an eccentric half century old nontraditional white female student she travels abroad alone to Durban South Africa seeking real life experiences that would magnify the depth of racism that still exists What she finds there changes her life forever

O'Mandingo! Eric Miyeni, 2006 Based on the controversial but popular e zine this collection of opinion pieces and essays analyzes current topics facing postapartheid South Africa including black economic empowerment affirmative action race poverty and affluence while also touching on such lighter topics as sports movies love and friendship Black pride strength unity and prosperity are central themes in these articles creating a unique picture of the current South African black consciousness movement A Movement of Movements Walden F. Bello, 2004 Charts the strategic thinking behind the mosaic of movements currently challenging neoliberal globalization AF Press Clips United States Department of State. Bureau of African Affairs, 1979
