Space Frontier Of The Future:

Space, Frontier of the Future Robert Gardner, 1980-01-01 Discusses exploration and research in outer space the space shuttle and space stations and man's future in space Ronald Reagan and the Space Frontier John M. Logsdon, 2018-11-26 When Ronald Reagan was elected in 1980 limits on NASA funding and the lack of direction under the Nixon and Carter administrations had left the U S space program at a crossroads In contrast to his predecessors Reagan saw outer space as humanity's final frontier and as an opportunity for global leadership His optimism and belief in American exceptionalism guided a decade of U S activities in space including bringing the space shuttle into operation dealing with the 1986 Challenger accident and its aftermath committing to a permanently crewed space station encouraging private sector space efforts and fostering international space partnerships with both U S allies and with the Soviet Union Drawing from a trove of declassified primary source materials and oral history interviews John M Logsdon provides the first comprehensive account of Reagan's civilian and commercial space policies during his eight years in the White House Even as a fiscal conservative who was hesitant to increase NASA's budget Reagan's enthusiasm for the space program made him perhaps the most pro space president in American history Frontiers Past and Future Carl Abbott, 2006 Abbott offers a fruitful new way to read science fiction one that also greatly enriches our understanding of western history and its impact on our collective imagination Detailing the overlap of science fiction and western fiction especially relating to their mutual interest in and concerns about frontier expansionism he reveals an unsuspected common ground that informs the writings of both camps Reviewing the work of many Hugo and Nebula Award winners as well as drawing upon popular film and television series like the Buck Rogers serials Abbott's study journeys across the far reaches of science fiction's universe Future Space Programs, 1981 United States.
