Space And Place:

Space and Place Yi-Fu Tuan, 1977 Space and Place in Jewish Studies Barbara E. Mann, 2012-02-10 Scholars in the humanities have become increasingly interested in questions of how space is produced and perceived and they have found that this consideration of human geography greatly enriches our understanding of cultural history This spatial turn equally has the potential to revolutionize Jewish Studies complicating familiar notions of Jews as people of the Book displaced persons with only a common religious tradition and history to unite them Space and Place in Jewish Studies embraces these exciting critical developments by investigating what space has meant within Jewish culture and tradition and how notions of Jewish space diaspora and home continue to resonate within contemporary discourse bringing space to the foreground as a practical and analytical category Barbara Mann takes us on a journey from medieval Levantine trade routes to the Eastern European shtetl to the streets of contemporary New York introducing readers to the variety of ways in which Jews have historically formed communities and created a sense of place for themselves Combining cutting edge theory with rabbinics anthropology and literary analysis Mann offers a fresh take on the Jewish experience Space and Place as Human Coordinates Arianna Maiorani, C. Bruna Mancini, 2021-10-19 This truly multidisciplinary book explores how culture founding terms like space and place have been reconsidered re elaborated and how they have acquired new meanings through academic research that crosses the traditional borderline between the humanities and social sciences All chapters explore from different perspectives how the notions of space and place are still modelling our sense of reality by investigating social and cultural phenomena of various types that evolved between the 20th and 21st centuries The essays collected here provide evidence of the growing necessity of building bridges across disciplines to allow knowledge in general and academic work in particular to work towards new forms of epistemology The book will be of particular interest to scholars and students in the areas of cultural studies discourse analysis multimodality communication and media linguistics literary and film studies anthropology and ethnography Conceptions of Space and Place in Strategic Spatial Planning Simin Davoudi, Ian Strange, 2008-11-24 Bringing together authors from academia and practice this book examines spatial planning at different scales in a number of case studies throughout the British Isles helping planners to become re engaged in critical thinking about space and place The Politics of Space and Place Bob Brecher, Nicola Clewer, Doug Else, 2013-01-03 What might an analysis of politics which focuses on the operation of power through space and place and on the spatial structuring of inequality tell us about the world we make for ourselves and others From the national border to the wire fence from the privatisation of land to the exclusion and expulsion of persecuted peoples questions of space and place of who can be where and what they can do there are at the very heart of the most important political debates of our time Bringing together an interdisciplinary collection of authors deploying diverse perspectives and methodological approaches this book responds to the pressing demand to reflect on and engage with some of the key questions raised by a political analysis of space and place

Its chapters chart the ways in which inequality and exclusion are played out in spatial terms exploring the operations of power and resistance at the micro level of the individual home and small community analysing modes of securitisation and fortification utilised in the interests of wealth and power and documenting the ways in which space and place are being transformed by changing socio economic and cultural demands As well as analysing the ways in which forms of exclusion and persecution are manifest spatially the chapters in this book also attend to the forms of resistance and contestation which emerge in response to them Resistance is found in the persistence of those who build and rebuild their homes and communities in a world which seems bent on their exclusion At the same time life on the peripheries can give rise to new conceptions of citizenship and public space as well as to new political demands which seek to re claim space and contest the dominant order Bringing together scholars working in fields as diverse as political science geography international studies cultural anthropology architecture political philosophy and the visual arts this book offers readers access to a range of contemporary case studies and theoretical perspectives Relevant timely and thoroughly accessible this text offers an integrated approach to what can be a dauntingly diverse area of study and will be of interest not only to those working in fields such as architecture political theory and geography but also to non specialists and students
