Cavazos-Gaither, 2008-01-08 Scientists and other keen observers of the natural world sometimes make or write a statement pertaining to scientific activity that is destined to live on beyond the brief period of time for which it was intended This book serves as a collection of these statements from great philosophers and thought influencers of science past and present It allows the reader quickly to find relevant quotations or citations Organized thematically and indexed alphabetically by author this work makes readily available an unprecedented collection of approximately 18 000 quotations related to a broad range of scientific topics Olson, 1977

Birds of Massachusetts and Other New England States Edward Howe Forbush, 1929 The Sparrows Denis Summers-Smith, 2010-11-30 While Denis Summers Smith's monograph The Sparrows presented his knowledge of sparrow biology this volume tells the other human side of the tale Denis Summers Smith first took up the study of the House Sparrow in 1947 thinking that the difficulties of travel in post war Britain would best suit the study of a species always close at hand The humble House Sparrow common everywhere was surprisingly poorly researched and his work soon provided interesting insights into this successful and adaptable little bird As new opportunities to travel opened up his interest blossomed to take in the genus Passer as a whole His travels would ultimately lead to his study of all but one of the group found only in deepest Turkestan and to the publication of his authoritative monograph on sparrows in 1988 His wry descriptions of the tribulations and unexpected pleasures of a traveller on four continents from the Himalayas and Thailand to Africa and the Americas with a good few islands in between are interspersed with observations and speculations on the biology of sparrows in a wide variety of habitats Everywhere local officials and bird watchers warmed to the eccentric Scot in pursuit of the little birds that nobody notices but which so often make their homes beside us The author's own photographs and delightful cartoons by Euan Dunn further paint the picture of this lifelong search Animal World, 1870 Catalogue of the Osteological Portion of Specimens Contained in the Anatomical Museum of the University of Cambridge William Clark, 1862
