Style And Content In Christian Art:

Style and Content in Christian Art Jane Dillenberger, 2005-01-25 A profound and sympathetic introduction to the scope of Christian art it is written in language simple enough for the lay person and its length is almost ideally suited to its purpose This work is sound from the standpoint of art history and criticism as well as Christian thought and understanding Liturgical Arts In 228 pages of lucid exposition Mrs Dillenberger presents an authoritative yet untechnical history of style in western art Her time span is Christian her examples all illustrated are Christian in subject matter Her analyses weigh subject and meaning iconography together with formal values line shape mass space light and shade It is written for the intelligent educated lay person seeking an understanding of art it should appeal to Christian and non Christian alike Religious Education The title is honest the approach logical and effective The author knows what she is doing both artistically and theologically Often grubby matters like iconography form composition and meaning in works of art are clearly and interestingly handled It is a model of commonsense lucidity Duke Divinity ReVisioning James Romaine, Linda Stratford, 2014-05-20 ReVisioning Critical Methods of Seeing Christianity in the History of Art examines the application of art historical methods to the history of Christianity and art As methods of art history have become more interdisciplinary there has been a notable emergence of discussions of religion in art history as well as related fields such as visual culture and theology This book represents the first critical examination of scholarly methodologies applied to the study of Christian subjects themes and contexts in art ReVisioning contains original work from a range of scholars each of whom has addressed the question in regard to a well known work of art or body of work How have particular methods of art history been applied and with what effect The study moves from the third century to the present providing extensive treatment and analysis of art historical methods applied to the history of Christianity and art Envisioning the Word Richard A. Jensen, 2005 In this one volume resource kit Jensen helps preachers use visual images creatively and responsibly How how much when what equipment use of teams relationship to exegesis different varieties of images sources all the essential topics and concerns are addressed here Jensen first discusses how vital if controversial image making has always been in Christian tradition and then demonstrates how preaching with images is both profoundly traditional and necessary to contemporary proclamation His work combines practical advice with religious reflection to enable preachers to help their congregations envision the Word anew The accompanying CD ROM contains not only the full text of the book and helpful study guide but links to the most helpful Websites and Web based sources of images The Oxford Illustrated History of Christianity John McManners, 2001-03-15 Illustrated with over 350 colour and black and white pictures this is a general history of Christianity The Passion in Art Richard Harries, 2019-07-23 Jesus was not depicted on the cross until the early fifth century Since then this scene has been painted or carved in sharply differing ways With the aid of over thirty full page plates The Passion in Art explores the historical contexts and theologies that led to such differing depictions Because the first Christians saw the

Crucifixion and Resurrection of Jesus as different aspects of a unified victory over sin and death scenes of the Passion are juxtaposed with some of the Resurrection which again are highly varied in what they do and do not show This is the first book to consider the Passion as portrayed in the whole sweep of Christian history Each picture is considered both from the point of view of its context and its theological standpoint Spanning the centuries the images reproduced and discussed include scenes from the Passion of Christ in the Catacombs of Domitilla mosaics in Ravenna the Rabbula Crucifixion and Resurrection the Crucifixion Plaque from Metz the Gero Crucifix Cimabue's Crucifix Giotto's Noli me Tangere Piero della Francesca's Resurrection the Isenheim altarpiece Caravaggio's Supper at Emmaus Rembrandt's Christ on the Cross Chagall's White Crucifixion contemporary paintings by Stanley Spencer Graham Sutherland Nicholas Mynheer and many more works of great acclaim

The Image of Christ in Modern Art Richard Harries, 2016-03-03 The Image of Christ in Modern Art explores the challenges presented by the radical and rapid changes of artistic style in the 20th century to artists who wished to relate to traditional Christian imagery In the 1930s David Jones said that he and his contemporaries were acutely conscious of the break by which he meant the fragmentation and loss of a once widely shared Christian narrative and set of images In this highly illustrated book Richard Harries looks at some of the artists associated with the birth of modernism such as Epstein and Rouault as well as those with a highly distinctive understanding of religion such as Chagall and Stanley Spencer He discusses the revival of confidence associated with the rebuilding of Coventry Cathedral after World War II and the commissioning of work by artists like Henry Moore Graham Sutherland and John Piper before looking at the very testing last quarter of the 20th century He shows how here and even more in our own time fresh and important visual interpretations of Christ have been created both by well known and less well known artists In conclusion he suggests that the modern movement in art has turned out to be a friend not a foe of Christian art Through a wide and beautiful range of images and insightful text Harries explores the continuing challenge present from the beginning of Christian art as to how that which is visual can in some way indicate the transcendent
