Subject To Change Teaching Literature In The Nineties:

Subject to Change Susie J. Tharu, 1998 This collection of essays is a reprint of a special issue of the Journal of English and Foreign Languages on Teaching Literature. The contributions to this anthology reflect the debate in the thinking about English Literary Studies. It discusses the refiguring of internationalism in the context of a new global order. Subject to Change Susie J. Tharu, 1998 Texts And Their Worlds - I Literature Of India An Introduction Anna Kurian, 2006-10-05 Texts and Their Worlds I Literatures of India An Introduction attempts to introduce students to literatures of India. The selections provide a sampling of diverse texts which open windows into the worlds in which they were created. They bid the reader to think to understand and most importantly to deploy those ideas beyond the classroom. The book integrates Indian writing in English with Indian literatures written in English in India alongside all other literatures produced in India providing tremendous scope for discussions of commonalities and differences. Key features: A brief introduction to each author and his/her popular works. A critical write up on each literary piece to prepare students to read the full text. A glossary of words and phrases to facilitate proficiency in reading. Discussion questions to encourage literary and critical analysis. The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Literary Studies Neil Lazarus, 2004-07-15 Offers a lucid introduction to postcolonial studies, one of the most important strands in recent literary theory and cultural studies. A Companion to Postcolonial Studies Henry Schwarz, Sangeeta Ray, 2008-04-15 This volume examines the tumultuous changes that have occurred and are still occurring in the aftermath of European colonization of the globe from 1492 to 1947. Ranges widely over the major themes, regions, theories and practices of postcolonial study. Presents original essays by the leading proponents of postcolonial study in the Americas, Europe, India, Africa, East and West Asia. Provides clear introductions to the major social and political movements underlying colonization and decolonization, accessible histories of the literature and culture and separate regions affected by European colonization. Features introductory essays on the major thinkers and intellectual schools that have informed strategies of national liberation worldwide. Offers an incisive summary of the long history and theory of modern European colonization in local detail and global scale. Liberal Education and Its Discontents Shashikala Srinivasan, 2018-08-06 What explains the peculiar trajectory of the university and liberal education in India? Can we understand the crisis in the university in terms of the idea of education underlying it? This book explores these vital questions and traces the intellectual history of the idea of education and the cluster of concepts associated with it. It probes into the cultural roots of liberal education and seeks to understand its scope, effects and limits when transplanted into the Indian context. With an extensive analysis of the philosophical writing on the idea of university and education in the West and colonial documents on education in India, the book reconstructs the ideas of Gandhi and Tagore on education and learning as a radical alternative to the inherited European model. The author further reflects upon how we can successfully deepen liberal education in India as well as construct alternative models that will help us diversify higher learning for the future.

English Studies in India Banibrata Mahanta, Rajesh Babu Sharma, 2018-11-03 This volume is a collection of scholarly papers that explore the complex issues concerning English Studies in the present Indian context The discussions in this volume range from historical perspectives to classroom specific pedagogies from sociological and political hierarchies to the dynamics of intellectual development in the English language environment Interrogating both policy and practice pertaining to English Studies in the context of Indian society culture history literature and governance the chapters seek to formulate contemporary perspectives to these debates and envision alternative possibilities Since the introduction of English to India more than 2 centuries ago the language has transmuted the very fabric of Indian society culture history literature and governance The idea of India cannot be conceived in its entirety without taking into consideration the epistemological role that English has played in its formation The present globalized world order has added dimensions to English Studies which are radically different from those of India's colonial and postcolonial past It is therefore imperative that the multitudinous shades and shadows of the discipline be re-examined with inputs drawn from the present context This volume is for scholars and researchers of English literature and language studies linguistics and culture studies and others interested in exploring new paradigms of engagement with the disciplinary formulation of English Studies in India

From Canon to Covid Angelie Multani, Swati Pal, Nandini Saha, Albeena Shakil, Arjun Ghosh, 2023-08-31 This multi-genre collection of chapters presents the dramatic transformation of English Studies in India since the early 1990s It showcases the shift from the study of mainly British literature and language to a more versatile terrain of multilingualism culture performance theory and the literary Global South Tracing this transition the volume discusses themes like Indian literary history postcolonial theory post-pandemic challenges to literary studies the state of Indian English drama vernacular literature in English Studies and pedagogy translations of feminist writers from South Asia caste and othering in literature among other key themes The volume with contributions from eminent English Studies scholars not only reflects the altered terrain of English Language and Literature in India but also invites readers to think about the transformative potential of the present juncture for both literary imagination and literary studies This timely book in honour of Professor GJV Prasad will be of interest to scholars and researchers of English Studies cultural studies literature comparative literature translation studies postcolonial studies and critical theory

Constructing a New Canon of Post-1980s Indian English Fiction Sahdev Luhar, Madhurita Choudhary, 2017-08-21 The literary canon implies the evaluation or estimation of certain literary texts as the most important during a particular time The canon is not merely a set of texts it is a set of standards evaluative procedures and values Belonging to a canon confers a guarantee of literary greatness A canon is formed by a particular group to channelize cultural hegemony over others or can be constructed by a governed group to bring about cultural symmetry The rise of diverse literatures in English in different parts of the world after the colonial rule of England was the consequence of an urge to articulate a cultural equilibrium or an urge to strike back The process of canon formation is also a focused and bigoted act and is always carried out to accomplish certain self centred objectives It is commonly accepted that canon formation is executed to accomplish or naturalize certain ideological functions In the sphere of Indian English literature Indian English fiction after the end of the 1980s has emerged as a new canon This book looks into the process of literary canon formation in Indian universities and examines such fiction as an alternative literary canon and as an anti imperialistic response to the British literary canon The book ascertains the anti imperialistic design involved in forming the canon of post 1980 Indian English fiction examines the gradual emerging trends in such fiction and discerns the role of language culture and native ethos in the formation of a canon It also differentiates post 1980s Indian English fiction from British fiction bhasa fiction and even from pre 1980s Indian English fiction

Genres of Modernity Dirk Wiemann, 2008 Genres of Modernity maps the conjunctures of critical theory and literary production in contemporary India The volume situates a sample of representative novels in the discursive environment of the ongoing critical debate on modernity in India and offers for the first time a rigorous attempt to hold together the stimulating impulses of postcolonial theory subaltern studies and the boom of Indian fiction in English Combining close readings of literary texts from Salman Rushdie to Kiran Nagarkar with a wide range of philosophical sociological and historiographic reflections Genres of Modernity is of interest not only for students of postcolonial literatures but for academics in the fields of Cultural Studies at large
