American Dream, American Nightmare Kathryn Hume, 2022-08-15 In this celebration of contemporary American fiction Kathryn Hume explores how estrangement from America has shaped the fiction of a literary generation which she calls the Generation of the Lost Dream In breaking down the divisions among standard categories of race religion ethnicity and gender Hume identifies shared core concerns values and techniques among seemingly disparate and unconnected writers including T Coraghessan Boyle Ralph Ellison Russell Banks Gloria Naylor Tim O'Brien Maxine Hong Kingston Walker Percy N Scott Momaday John Updike Toni Morrison William Kennedy Julia Alvarez Thomas Pynchon Leslie Marmon Silko and Don DeLillo Hume explores fictional treatments of the slippage in the immigrant experience between America's promise and its reality She exposes the political link between contemporary stories of lost innocence and liberalism's inadequacies She also invites us to look at the literary challenge to scientific materialism in various searches for a spiritual dimension in life The expansive future promised by the American Dream has been replaced Hume finds by a sense of tarnished morality and a melancholy loss of faith in America's exceptionalism American Dream American Nightmare examines the differing critiques of America embedded in nearly a hundred novels and points to the source for recovery that appeals to many of the authors

DIY on the Lower East Side Andrew Strombeck,2020-08-01 The severe financial austerity imposed on New York City during the 1975 fiscal crisis resulted in a city falling apart Broken windows crumbling walls and piles of bricks were everywhere While for many this physical decay was a sign that the postwar welfare state had failed for others it represented a site of risky opportunity that could stimulate novel forms of creativity and community In this book Andrew Strombeck explores the legacy of this crisis for the city's literature and art focusing on one neighborhood where changes were acutely felt the Lower East Side In what became a paradigmatic example of gentrification the Lower East Side's population shifted from working class people to Wall Street traders and ad agents This transformation occurred in part because of high profile local artists such as Jean Michel Basquiat Keith Haring Jeff Koons and Kiki Smith but Strombeck argues that neighborhood writers also played a role Drawing on archival research and original author interviews he examines the innovative work of Kathy Acker David Wojnarowicz Miguel Pi ero Sylv re Lotringer Lynne Tillman and others and concludes that these writers still have much to teach us about changes in the nature of work and the emergence of a do it yourself ethos DIY on the Lower East Side shows how place and politics shaped literature and how New York City policies adopted at the time continue to shape our world letters over the authenticity or fakery of her cultural references Grice traces the debates through the appearance of China Men 1981 as well as the novels Tripmaster Monkey 1989 and her most recent work The Fifth Book of Peace Maxine Hong Kingston will be of value to students and academics researching in the areas of diaspora writing contemporary American and Asian American fiction as well as feminist and postcolonial literature Critiquing Postmodernism in Contemporary Discourses of Race S. Kim, 2009-11-23 Critiquing Postmodernism in Contemporary Discourses of Race challenges the critical emphasis on otherness in treatments of race in literary and cultural studies Sue J Kim deftly argues that this treatment not only perpetuates narrow identity politics but obscures the political and economic structures that shape issues of race in literary studies Kim's revelatory book shows how reading authors through their identity ends up neglecting both complex historical contexts and aesthetic forms This comparative study calls for a reconsideration of the bases for critical engagement and a reading ethics that melds the best of historicist and formalist approaches to literature
