Landscapes under Pressure Ludomir R. Lozny,2006-03-27 This book investigates the newly emerging interest to investigate and preserve cultural landscapes It presents the historic archaeological ethnographic and environmental traditions of cultural landscape study and the attempts to reconstruct and analyze the complex processes of cultural changes It points to the benefits of interdisciplinary cooperation which should involve an ecological approach with historical ecology applied archaeology and environmental planning Landscape Is...! Gareth Doherty,Charles Waldheim,2025-02-24

Landscape Is examines the implicit biases and received meanings of landscape Following on from the previous publication Is Landscape which examined the plural and promiscuous identities of the landscape idea this companion volume reflects upon the diverse and multiple meanings of landscape as a discipline profession and medium This book is intended for academics researchers and students in landscape architecture and cognate disciplines Chapters address various overlooked aspects of landscape that develop disturb and diversify received understandings of the field Framed as an inquiry into the relationship of landscape to the forms of human subjectivity the book features contributions from leading voices who challenge the contemporary understandings of the field in relation to capital and class race and gender power and politics and more

Landscape John Wylie,2007-08-07 Landscape is a stimulating introduction to and contemporary understanding of one of the most important concepts within human geography A series of different influential readings of landscape are debated and explored and for the first time distinctive traditions of landscape writing are brought together and examined as a whole in a forward looking critical review of work by cultural geographers and others within the last twenty to thirty years This book clearly and concisely explores landscape theories and writings allowing students of geography environmental studies and cultural studies to fully comprehend this vast and complex topic To aid the student vignettes are used to highlight key writers papers and texts Annotated further reading and student exercises are also included For researchers and lecturers Landscape presents a forward looking synthesis of hitherto disparate fields of inquiry one which offers a platform for future research and writing The Powhatan Landscape Martin D. Gallivan,2018-09-17 Southern Anthropological Society James Mooney Award As Native American history is primarily studied through the lens of European contact the story of Virginia s Powhatans has traditionally focused on the English arrival in the Chesapeake This has left a deeper indigenous history largely unexplored a longer narrative beginning with the Algonquians construction of places communities and the connections in between The Powhatan Landscape breaks new ground by tracing Native placemaking in the Chesapeake from the Algonquian arrival to the Powhatan s clashes with the English Martin Gallivan details how Virginia Algonquians constructed riverine communities alongside fishing grounds and collective burials and later within horticultural towns Ceremonial spaces including earthwork enclosures within the center place of Werowocomoco gathered people for centuries prior to 1607 Even after the violent ruptures of the colonial era Native people returned to riverine towns for pilgrimages commemorating the enduring power of place For today s American Indian communities in the Chesapeake this reexamination of landscape and history represents a powerful basis from which to contest narratives and policies that have previously denied their existence A volume in the series Society and Ecology in Island and Coastal Archaeology edited by Victor D Thompson

Villa Landscapes in the Roman North Ton Derks,Nico Roymans,2025-10-01 This edited volume presents a synthesis of recent research on villas and villa landscapes in the northern provinces of the Roman world It offers an original multi dimensional perspective on the social economic and cultural functioning of villas within the context of the Roman empire Themes discussed include the economic basis of villa dominated landscapes rural slavery town country dynamics the role of monumental burials in villa landscapes and self representation and lifestyle of villa owners This study offers a major contribution to the comparative research of villa landscapes and the phenomenon of regionality in Roman rural landscapes Amsterdam Archaeological Studies is a series devoted to the study of past human societies from the prehistory up into modern times primarily based on the study of archaeological remains The series will include excavation reports of modern fieldwork studies of categories of material culture and synthesising studies with broader images of past societies thereby contributing to the theoretical and methodological debates in archaeology
