Such Devoted Sisters Shena Mackay,1994 Twenty one stories on sisterhood Dunedin by Shena Mackay is on two spinsters who run a boarding house in Katherine Mansfield's The Daughters of the Late Colonel middle aged sisters agree it is better to be weak than strong and Fiona Cooper's The Sisters Hood is on a pair of leather clad women The Short Story Anthology and Women's Writing Aleix Tura Vecino,2025-08-14 Hundreds of anthologies of women's short stories have appeared in the literary market between the 1970s and now This publishing and cultural phenomenon is considered for the first time in this book which argues that during this period anthologies have become a literary technology used not only to make visible female short story writers but also to think about and mould ideas of womanhood Through creative and contextualised readings of the most important anthologies produced in this period this study shows that this literary form has contributed to and in some cases pioneered key developments in gender theory and feminist thought including questions of political combination among women which underlie contemporary global movements such as MeToo In doing so the book also develops the first book length conceptualisation of the features and meaning making mechanisms of the short story anthology as a literary form This book will benefit academics and students working in the fields of short fiction publishing and women's studies as well as feminist scholars and a growing number of specialists interested in the anthology as a literary form worldwide Feminist Dilemmas in Qualitative Research Jane Ribbens,Rosalind Edwards,1997-12-12 How can researchers produce work with relevance to theoretical and formal traditions and requirements of public academic knowledge while still remaining faithful to the experiences and accounts of research participants based in private settings Feminist Dilemmas in Qualitative Research explores this key dilemma and examines the interplay between theory epistemology and the detailed practice of research It does this across the whole research process access data collection and analysis and writing up research It goes on to consider ways of achieving high standards of reflexivity and openness in the strategic choices made during research examining these issues for specific projects in an open and accessible style Particular themes examined are the research dilemmas that occur from feminist perspectives in relation to researching private and personal social worlds the position of the researcher as situated between public knowledge and private experience and the dilemmas raised for researchers seeking to contribute to academic discourse while remaining close to their knowledge forms

Sherlock's Sisters Joseph A. Kestner, 2017-03-02 Sherlock's Sisters The British Female Detective 1864-1913 examines the fictional female detective in Victorian and Edwardian literature This character originating in the 1860s configures a new representation of women in narratives of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries This analysis explores female empowerment through professional unofficial or official detection especially as this surveillance illuminates legal moral gendered institutional criminal punitive judicial political and familial practices This book considers a range of literary texts by both female and male writers which concentrate on detection by women particularly those which followed the creation of Sherlock Holmes by Arthur Conan Doyle in 1887 Cultural movements such as the emergence of the New Woman property law or suffragism are stressed in the exploits of these resourceful investigators These daring women deal with a range of crimes including murder blackmail terrorism forgery theft sexual harassment embezzlement fraud impersonation and domestic violence Privileging the exercise of reason rather than intuition these women detectives are proto feminist in their demonstration of women's independence Instead of being under the law these women transform it Their investigations are given particular edge because many of the perpetrators of these crimes are women Sherlock s Sisters probes many texts which because of their rarity have been under researched Writers such as Beatrice Heron Maxwell Emmuska Orczy L T Meade Catherine Pirkis Fergus Hume Grant Allen Leonard Merrick Marie Belloc Lowndes George Sims McDonnell Bodkin and Richard Marsh are here incorporated into the canon of Victorian and Edwardian literature many for the first time A writer such as Mary Elizabeth Braddon is reassessed through a neglected novel The book includes works by Irish and Australian writers to present an inclusive array of British texts Sherlock s Sisters enlarges the perception of emerging female empowerment during the nineteenth century filling an important gap in the fields of Gender Studies Law Literature and Popular Culture Indian Women's Writing in English Joel Kuortti,2002 This is a remarkable collection of information on Indian women s writing written originally in English Beginning from the 19th century it introduces 444 writers of poetry and fiction Now it has been a part of common critical parlance to say that the Indian English women s writing is in ascendance One aim of this bibliography is to illustrate this phenomenon and to emphasise the variety of writing Writers included in the bibliography come from all over India and from the Indian diaspora all over the world Another aim of this bibliography is to make us aware of the constructed nature of writerhood A given writer s texts do not exist and circulate in a vacuum but in a context We can see that Indian English women s writing is taking place But what we do not see is the critical establishment that is literary scholars and critics taking much note of it
