Ayoola, 2012 Blazing the Path Fifty Years of Things Fall Apart is a collection of new perspectives on Chinua Achebe s Things Fall Apart a novel that was first published in 1958 and which has since become a classic of world literature Aside from opening up the novel to new interpretive strategies of well established literary critics and clarifying some past ones this collection of essays repositions Things Fall Apart as a literary piece with interdisciplinary and multidimensional appeal The volume fulfills the objective of using the novel to interrogate the colonial and pre colonial African past with Nigeria s post modern present and projects the country into a future that looks to literature for a deeper understanding of where Nigeria is as a citizen of an emerging global village

On the Horizon of World Literature Emily Sun, 2021-04-06 On the Horizon of World Literature compares literary texts from asynchronous periods of incipient literary modernity in different parts of the world Romantic England and Republican China These moments were oriented alike by world literature as a discursive framework of classifications that connected and re organized local articulations of literary histories and literary modernities World literature thus provided and continues to provide a condition of possibility for conversation between cultures as well as for their mutual provincialization The book offers readings of a selection of literary forms that serve also as textual sites for the enactment of new socio political forms of life The literary manifesto the tale collection the familiar essay and the domestic novel function as testing grounds for questions of both literary aesthetic and socio political importance What does it mean to attain a voice What is a common reader How does one dwell in the ordinary What is a woman In different languages and activating heterogeneous literary and philosophical traditions works by Percy
